The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

So far, we have not heard a single person, official or otherwise, say that Arlington Heights is not ready for a business manager. The objection seems to be the estimated cost, upon which there is a disagreement.

We suggest that the ordinance be passed with the understanding that if it appears the cost will be excessive, no manager be appointed.

The village budget for several years contained an item for commissioner of public works, who was never appointed. There is no reason for the aldermen to call each other names. We know that the proponents of the ordinance are sincere, and every board member will have the opportunity of voting.

A village manager for Arlington Heights does not necessarily mean that his salary and other expenses of his office would increase the budget of the village.

That budget contains items that would be saved by a manager operation of the municipal government.

As an example, the present village budget contains an item of $6,500 for a superintendent of public works, the duties of which office would be part of the duties of the village manager. On that basis a $12,000 budget for a city manager would shrink to an actual cost of only $6,000.

A residential lot with a sideage along a business alley is certainly not desirable for homes. We hope the Zoning Board of Appeals will recognize that fact.

There are two ways to end a village board meeting. Tuesday night Arlington Heights suddenly adjourned at 11 p.m. without giving the clerk an opportunity to uncover a pile of correspondence.

The next morning at quarter of two, a Mount Prospect trustee arose from his chair and walked out. The other members decided they were also tired and named a date for an executive session.

Incidentally, both boards' sessions were "red hot." When elected officials are in disagreement, it is no wonder that the voters who put them there occasionally have a fence or two between them.

William Mortimer, County superintendent of highways, has personally done all he could to hasten the construction of the original Tri-State highway. It is not his fault that the county is unable to build new highways fast enough to keep pace with the growing vehicle traffic.

Those trucks will continue to travel through Mount Prospect.

We hope that the people of Mount Prospect will get so mad over the situation that they will go all-out for the needed legislation that will provide the funds to get the town "off the hook."

We pass on to our readers this week the strongest reason for off-street parking that has come to our attention. It reads:

"Parking 'on street' has killed up to half of our street space. Downtown curb parking has resulted in decreased property values . . . has all but ruined rapid transit . . . and caused shoppers to go elsewhere.

"For a city to provide free, or practically free, parking space on major streets at the same time it is spending millions of dollars to build new streets, is boondoggling of the rankest sort. . . and on street parking forces all moving vehicles out and into the narrow center lanes.

"Eliminate 'on street' parkers and you'll double the size of your street, speed up traffic and reduce accidents."

The new families in Kimball Hill are giving evidence that they want to be good neighbors to the people of Arlington Heights and Palatine. They are attending local churches and patronizing local stores.

They have evidently forgiven "us" for the efforts made to keep them out.

The barbers had a perfect right to cut down their working day as they did September 1, but take it from us, if they raise the hair cutting price to two bucks, as some of them have suggested, they will find themselves in the same position as many automobile dealers today. Less customers.

We do not know how the owners of the local shops will vote, but we have been told that some of the dads around these parts are buying clippers to use on their son's hair.

Steeped in the belief that Uncle Sam has the edge on every other country, we were surprised recently to learn that England has jet passenger planes in passenger service.

We felt better when Horace Gilbert, Palatine aviation authority, explained to us that if the United States is lagging in the commercial jet world, it is the yankee habit of money pinching.

It seems that jet propulsion cost is exceedingly high unless planes are flown at a very high altitude. They claim that by the use of prop planes, aviation companies have saved a lot of money.

It will not always be that way. Pan American has ordered three jet planes of greater power than any British jet plane now in service, subject to the approval of the government for the use of such planes in this country.

Explain Viewpoint Of Aldermen On City Manager

The proposed village manager ordinance that was presented to Arlington Heights village board Tuesday evening for its first reading is the combined thinking of several of its members. They are confident that it is the answer to a "growing pains" situation that exists in Arlington Heights.

They say, they have had the opportunity to observe, rather closely, the operations of the village — and, it has been a revelation to the new members, at the complexity of the operation. Of course, with the population soon to exceed 14,000 with 30 some odd employees and a budget in excess of $500,000, they realize it's no small operation and it can't help but become complex. In fact, the operations have become so complex they feel part-time administration of this board is no longer adequate.

This is probably no surprise to all the members of the board and to the general public who have had the fortitude to sit through the bitter end of many midnite (and later) meetings, in the past 6 months. As one member told a reporter Monday evening, "these board meetings have been so wrapped up in attempting to find the solution to details that there has been very little time for anything else. Practically all these details were administrative in nature and, actually shouldn't have come to the board at all if there had been someone to whom these people could have gone and who had the authority to render decisions in keeping with the policy established by the board."

IN SOME communities, where elected officials have neglected or refused to consider a village manager, the voters have used the referendum method of making the change. The referendum statute provides that if the change is made by that method it will not take effect until the term of the mayor expires, which would be 3½ years hence. A second referendum would be necessary if the public becomes dissatisfied with that form of municipal operation. If the change is made by ordinance it could become effective January 1, and could be dropped.

Some communities who have enacted ordinances of this type are Park Ridge, Westchester, Evanston and Maywood, where not only is the village supplying more efficient service to the taxpayers, but in each case the taxpayer is receiving full value for his tax dollar.

Members of the village board who believe that a plan of this nature will succeed in Arlington Heights requested the village attorney to draft the ordinance presented Tuesday evening. It outlined his duties, responsibilities and authority. It will be outlined in next week's issue in order that the public, as well as the members of the board, will be informed on its provisions.

Prior to the presentation of the ordinance Trustee Charles Rehfeldt questioned the right of any trustee or trustees to have such an ordinance prepared by the attorney without board approval. Village Attorney Hugo J. Thal pointed out that it made no difference how the ordinance came to the board's attention.

Mayor Suggests Referendum on Village Manager

Albert Goedke, mayor of Arlington Heights, is not sold on the establishment of a village manager at this time. He suggested Wednesday that the matter be dropped at this time and placed on the ballot of the municipal election which will be held in April 1955.

Members of the village board are divided on the subject. Interest has been aroused to such an extent that there will probably be many spectators at the Dec. 15 meeting when the ordinance will come up for passage.

Forms Closing Soon On Arlington Directory

Arlington Heights new city directory is definitely on the way. The town has grown so fast that it has been difficult to keep the listing of residents up to date.

The directory is financed by advertisements, which are now being assembled. Original listings secured by the Mother's Club of St. Peter's church have been revised twise and the final revision will be as of January 1, 1954. Shortly afterwards the books will be printed.

Chamber Favors Rezoning For Parking Lot

A resolution favoring the rezoning of two lots on S. Highland to permit shopper parking was passed by the Chamber of Commerce members at their luncheon meeting Monday. The resolution will be turned over to the zoning board of appeals, which is considering the matter.

Other matters discussed at the business meeting included the opening of stores during the holiday shopping season. Beginning December 9 most stores will remain open all day Wednesdays, and beginning December 14 most stores will remain open until 9 p.m. each night until Christmas.

THERE WILL be no Christmas decoration contest this year due to the fact it is hard to obtain judges, the town has grown so large it makes it difficult to get around to judge the entries, and because in the past so few people have entered the contest.

The Chamber also suggested that the bank close all day Wednesday and remain open Friday evenings until 9 p.m., to coincide with the Friday night opening of stores. This would also be in keeping with the hours kept by other banks in the area. The Chamber did not favor Saturday closing for the bank as they feared it would be a detriment to business in general.

There is also a growing sentiment among businessmen to close their places of business at 5:30 p.m., beginning with the new year. At present the closing hour is 6 p.m., except for Friday, when most stores remain open until 9 p.m.

Nurses Check 4,800 In Health Program

by VERA FOLKMAN

The health of Arlington Heights school children is guarded with the utmost care through the complete community nursing program available in the village.

Until September 1 of this year Mrs. Thelma Carroll, registered nurse with a bachelor of science degree in public health nursing, was solely in charge of the vast health program conducted in the public and parochial grade and high schools in Arlington Heights. This year, with approximately 4,800 students to look after, she was given an assistant, Mrs. Iva Hufnagel, who is also a registered nurse and holds the same degree in public health nursing.

Their work is not limited to the schools, as they make various house calls, following up on defective cases discovered in the school checkups, checking with handicapped persons and mothers of new babies, and following up on tuberculosis and venereal diseases reported to them through local doctors, the county health department or other social agencies.

EACH YEAR every student attending local schools is given a vision test and hearing test. Dental checkups are given every student who does not have an OK from his dentist when he returns to school. All high school students, as well as every teacher, school administrator and other school employees are given a chest x-ray every year. Tubercular mantous tests are given to first, seventh and eighth grade students.

When a positive reaction is reported in the TB tests, the community nurse checks the person's contacts, including family, close relatives and friends, in an attempt to find the source of his contagion. This precaution often discovers an active case of TB which was not even known to the victim, who was unconsciously spreading the disease among

NEW PLAN WOULD CUT DELAY IN TRI-STATE CONSTRUCTION

Toll Road Could Take Over Mt. Prospect - Arlington Section

Various roadmen in Illinois are advocating the establishment of toll roads as a way to find funds to build highways for which there are not sufficient state and county funds to construct.

It is their thinking that under such a plan Tri-State could be completed from Higgins rd. to the Cook county line which in turn would end the Mount Prospect detour.

That section calls for very expensive construction as plans call for grade separation throughout Elk Grove and Wheeling townships. The most expensive would be under the North Western tracks and Northwest hwy. at Arlington Heights.

Residents of Mount Prospect are asking how much longer those trucks traveling on Route 83 will be "plowing" through Mount Prospect residential and business district, a menace to the life and safety of its children. They are also asking how the trucks got there and why. A reporter was told to get the answer. Whether or not it is pleasant news, here is what he found out.

The Tri-State Highway, to be known as Robert Kingery Expressway, called Route 83 in Illinois, was constructed on paper nearly 25 years ago. It received its name as a route connecting Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, extending from Michigan City, Indiana to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. It was designed especially for truck traffic.

When planned, the road avoided residential areas, but such areas have since then "moved in." Today, it has four lanes as far north as Route 64, west of Villa Park.

During recent years special attention has been given to the southern section of the road which has been widened and improved. A half million dollars has been allotted this year for additional right-of-way in the southern part of the county.

A considerable section of the highway exists in Lake county. The missing link which is the reason for the detour through Mount Prospect, extends from Higgins and Busse rds. to the Lake-Cook county line, a distance of about 8 miles.

When Stonegate was laid out in Arlington Heights about 1928, provision was made for the Tri-State to pass through that subdivision. The Stonegate residents requested three years ago to have the route of the highway moved to the east side of Stonegate, which request was recognized by the highway department in 1951.

In order to hasten construction, William Mortumer, then assistant superintendent of highways negotiated an agreement with the state highway department whereby the county took over the responsibility of securing the needed right-of-way with the understanding the state should do the construction job.

When it became necessary to outline an actual route between Central rd. and Northwestern tracks for the Roth Manufacturing Co. the county highway department got busy .The county board authorized the completion of the plans.

The route to the Lake - Cook line was established by the highway department six months ago and the next step was the approval of the route by the Arlington Heights Plan Commission. After the plat of the new route was turned over to the existing plan commission last spring that body was dissolved by an ordinance passed by the village board. Later a new plan commission was formed to whom was recently turned over the plat that had been in the possession of the old commission.

That plat is now being studied by the 1953 plan commission. It has been suggested it would be to the best interest of Arlington Heights if the road was moved a half mile further east.

Engineering difficulties may make impossible such a change. If the route goes to the east side of the sewage treatment plant it must then curve west in order to reach Arthur st. which, according to county profiles of the last 25 years, is the original northern route of the Three States Highway.

The construction of a double lane highway would be simple, but the big grade separation under the railroad and Northwest Highway and Euclid ave. will boost the cost so high that a bond issue would be necessary before the state could do its work.

Realizing the extra traffic load that would travel over the Mount Prospect detour, the county two years ago widened Elmhurst rd. through that village.

It is the opinion of a highway official that the new bond issue will be necessary before that Mount Prospect detour can be eliminated.

A news story published last week stated that the exrpessway to O'Hare field from Chicago would not be completed until 1963. The vehicle load on the highways are creating as great a problem for the county and state as are school enrollments for the school systems.

Until the go-sign is given by the Arlington Heights plan commission and the county board no steps can be taken to acquire the right-of-way. There will be no county funds for that purpose during 1954 as the budget for that period was passed last week.

The county is finding two uses for every highway dollar. The Tri-State project is now tentatively booked for 1958. Unless concerted action is taken by the residents of the northwest area there is little likelihood that Mount Prospect will get those trucks off its streets for another five or more years.

Railroad Parking Lot Available For Shopper Parking Certain Hours

The railroad parking lot on the south side of the tracks, between Dunton and Vail aves. in Arlington Heights, is available for 90-minute shopper parking from 7 p.m. Fridays until 6 p.m. Saturdays.

Shoppers having extensive shopping to do are urged to use the lot, which will allow them a longer period to make their purchases before having to move their cars. On street parking is limited to one hour.

Seek Information About Missing Girl

A 16 year old Arlington Heights girl left home Friday evening between 5:45 and 6:30 o'clock and her parents would appreciate any information regarding the direction or method of transportation she used.

It is known she took a taxi from a neighbor's home to the Arlington Heights depot, but it is not known whether she took a train or bus or in what direction she went.

She is 5 feet 5 inches tall, weighs 130 pounds, has brown hair and blue eyes. When last seen she was wearing brown and white saddle shoes, brown slacks, white blouse, short loose, poodle coat, pink and grey in color, mostly on the grey side, and was also believed to be carrying a small black suitcase.

Anyone seeing a girl answering this description leaving the village about that time last Friday is asked to please call CL 3-1061.

Ask Gas Extension To Westgate Subd.

A request by the Public Service division of Commonwealth Edison for permission to install a gas main along Wilke road from Campbell street north to St. James st., Palatine township, was referred to a special committee headed by Commissioner John J. Duffy Tuesday by the County Board.

One-Way Streets 'Go On Trial' Next Tuesday

The Arlington Heights plan commission will hold a public meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the village hall for the purpose of further studying the parking and traffic problem in the central business district.

One of the principal objectives of this meeting is to get from the people of Arlington Heights their opinion of the benefits or shortcomings of the one-way traffic system.

The commission urges shoppers, as well as businessmen, to attend. They want the story from the people who do the shopping as well as the businessmen. The sole purpose of the trial one-way streets was an attempt to make shopping easier. "Has it, or has it not?" asks the Plan Commission.

Traffic Court Slows Down; Police Aid in County Accident

Cases in Arlington Heights police court only numbered two this week, one being for speeding and the other a dog fine. Net proceeds were $28.50.

This week's police reports included a call from Werner Reese, 921 N. Highland, who said he was caught between the Vail ave. railroad gates, which came down on his car. He said he did not hear any warning bell as he went to cross the tracks.

The local police stood by for the County police at an accident on Rt. 53, north of Kirchhoff rd. Carlton W. Farley, 19, of Zion, was traveling south on Rt. 53 when his auto collided with the northbound auto of Richard Hill, 16, of Palatine.

Injured were Carolyne Johnson, 19, a student at Wheaton college, who received back injuries; Ann Farley, 12, of Zion, who sustained facial injuries; and Richard Hill, who also had facial injuries. Miss Johnson and Miss Farley were both taken to St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, by Black's ambulance.

Ronald Petersen, 8, of 1220 W. Euclid, was bitten by a dog owned by Roger Hufnagel of 313 N. Dwyer. According to police record this is the second time the Hufnagel's dog has bitten someone this year, the first time on July 7.

Police have requested Hufnagel to turn in a report on the dog at the end of the observation period.

20 New Residents a Week Move Into Kimball Hill

Own School To Start February 1; 436 Homes Under Construction

Rolling Meadows, known as Kimball Hill, adjoining Arlington Heights, has 436 houses under construtcion; 270 are under roof and by December 4, 1953, 43 will be occupied.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kaseska and their two children, Julia, 4, and Victor, 1½, who are proud to have been one of the first families to arrive in Rolling Meadows. Mr. Kaseska is employed by the Armored Express. They formerly resided in Chicago. They say that they are at least being welcomed by a flood of salesmen. They attend Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Church.

Commencing next week 20 families will be moving in each week. There are enough foundations ahead to assure a continued construction program during the winter months.

Construction has started on 6 houses which have been designed especially for use as temporary school buildings. The school board has requested that two of these be ready for use by February 1, 1954; more will be ready if the school board decides they need them.

In a survey of the first 231 families who will move into the development, there are 266 children, of which 75 are of school age.

WELL NO. 1 has been completed to its first stage, and is now in operation and has a capacity to take care of 500 families. Well No. 2 is now being drilled and has reached a depth of 450 feet. This well will go to 1,500 feet and should be completed by February 1, 1954, and it will have a capacity to take care of 1,400 units. When well number 2 is put in operation, well number 1 will be taken out of operation and drilling will be continued until the depth of 1,500 feet is reached. It should be finished by the middle of July, 1954.

The construction of the sewer connecting Rolling Meadows with the Chicago Sanitary district at Central rd. and Weller Creek has been completed with the exception of some man holes that are installed for the purpose of servicing the sewers in the future.

Specialists in the field of shopping centers are now being consulted for the purpose of obtaining a proper basis for planning the construction of a shopping center within the limits of Rolling Meadows. If the economic conditions of the country warrant the construction of the shopping center will be started next summer.

Rolling Meadows residents will be entitled to foot mail service as soon as the streets are improved. They will not have to erect mail boxes.

At present there are only 36 lots in section one and two that have not been sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sterner with Peggy, 4, and sister, Darlene, 2. They are particularly happy over their home because it adjoins two nice towns, which they think are wonderful town. Several times during the past 14 months, they did not know if the home they bargained for would be allowed to be built, but they have now forgotten all about the "keep-off" signs erected. Mrs. Sterner says that Rolling Meadows is a God-send to young couples who now have the privilege of becoming home owners while their husbands are ambitious enough to do the landscaping.

Saturday Was Moving Day For 66 Lutheran Home Residents

Saturday was moving day for the 66 residents of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged at Arlington Heights. It was a happy day for all of them. They left a building erected over a half century ago. Some who asked that all their belongings accompany them to their new quarters, rescinded that request after they reached the new building.

IT HAD BEEN a busy week for the home staff and the volunteers who spent five days on the moving job. Friday, the personal effects of the residents were moved.

Transporting the bed-ridden patients started at eight o'clock Saturday morning, with the use of Black's ambulance, the afternoon for the ambulatory people. Volunteered cars took the others throughout the day.

It was the first time that the greater number of the home residents had entered the new building. They were elated over their new quarters, the bright, beautiful rooms and modern equipment. Tears of thankfulness appeared in the eyes of many of them. The first church service was held in the new chapel Sunday morning.

Eight More Area Men Report to Army Friday

Eight more men from this area will be inducted into the army Friday by Local Board 101 of the Selective Service System, located at 1563 Ellinwood st., Des Plaines.

Two of the men, Ronald B. Bopp and Robert N. Drysch, are from Palatine; two from Barrington, Gordon Brockway and Charles H. Brintlinger; one from Arlington Heights, Henry S. Kaup; one from Roselle, Kenneth H. Bartels; one from Elgin, Martin Sorensen Jr. and one from Hebron, Albert Heuer Jr.

Thieves Break Into Real Estate Office, VFW Club House

Annen and Busse Real Estate Office, 730 E. Northwest hwy., Mount Prospect, was broken into Saturday night. Burglars ransacked the offices, pried open closed file drawers and dumped papers. Several pieces of office machinery were stolen.

Entry was gained by smashing a side window. The screen was replaced over the opening.

Mount Prospect police are also checking another burglary at the V.F.W. Club House Saturday. Burglars found no money, not even change in the cash register since the club members, with police escorts, placed all cash in the night deposit of the bank before closing.

Bob Annen says the stolen articles are covered by insurance but, hours of painstaking work was required to restore order in the file drawers.

Wheeling Man Hit By Auto, Dies of Injuries

Roland Jankiewicz, 63, of W. Dundee rd., Wheeling, who managed the turkey farm on Dundee rd., west of Wolf rd., died of injuries in St. Francis hospital, Evanston, Friday, after he was struck by an automobile at Milwaukee av., and Dundee rd., Wheeling.

The driver, Charles H. Kaempen, 921 Eastwood av., Libertyville high school employee, told police he was blinded momentarily by headlights of other autos.

Northwest Heighters Activities

Neighborhood Doings

Mrs. Ralph Burgess was hostess to 16 women Friday evening at a demonstration of "Coppercraft." This included all items made of copper, such as planters, smoking accessories, coffee and tea servers and even jewelry.

Five couples were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Frost for refreshments before attending the dance given by St. John's Episcopal church at Elmhurst Country club Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Adams and their children, Joyce, Bruce and Carl, of Chicago, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Danes.

Scout News

The 12 girls of troop 7 entertained their mothers with a program and refreshments at the Methodist church Tuesday. This was the troop's third birthday party. Their leadesr are Mrs. Arthur Kieck and Mrs. Paul Fellingham.

The girl scouts of troop 19 used the canned good and foods which they had collected at Halloween to make up their Thanksgiving basket which they gave as a gift to a family. The girls themselves made 20 cakes last week and donated them to the Servicemen's center in Chicago. The leaders of this troop are Mrs. Alfred Hall and Mrs. John Huskey.

Thanksgiving Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Alden enjoyed the holiday visit from their son, Charles, a sophomore at Michigan State.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stoehr and their company, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stoehr, and their daughters, Bonnie and Patty, had a great deal to be thankful for Thanksgiving day. Driving from their home in Hamilton, Ill., Wednesday evening, the Donald Stoehr family had an accident and fortunately no one was injured but their car was completely demolished when they went into a ditch in order to avoid a head-on collision.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Buren and family and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ahrens, had their turkey dinner at her brother's home, Mr. and Mrs. John Ahrens of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackburn and their son, James, a junior at Iowa State, spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Blackburn of Wauconda.

Thanksgiving day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Cary were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Desmarais and Bob Cary.

A visitor during Thanksgiving week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Coffman was his mother, Mrs. H. A. Coffman of Peoria.

Members of both families were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Flodin and included Mrs. Jessie Shirk and her daughter, Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shirk and family, W. A. Shirk, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Flodin, Harold and Arnold Flodin.

County May Refuse Care Of Additional Roads In Palatine Township

A request that certain roads now maintained by the Palatine township highway commissioner be taken over by the county was referred to the county highway department Tuesday by the County Board.

The Palatine township highway commissioner, Raymond Holtzee of Franklin road, had made the request. Roads involved are the connecting road between Quintens and Old Plum Grove roads; Lincoln street from Plum Grove to Quintens road; Inverway from Palatine to Baldwin roads, and Nichols road from Rand road to the township line.

Commissioners Daniel Ryan and John J. Duffy commented that the county has enough roads to maintain now, and the commissioners voted to ask for an opinion from the county highway superintendent.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. is the day and time chosen by the children of Sherwood for their second annual Christmas bazaar. It will take place again this year in the spacious basement of the Hagen home on Watling rd.

More than 45 children ranging in age from kindergarten through eighth graders are participating, both in the "getting ready" and the selling. About a dozen mothers are on the helping-hand committees.

Proceeds of the affair are used to buy gifts for residents of the Bensenville Home for Children and the Aged. It is the children there who are the special beneficiaries of the Sherwood boys and girls. They hope to be able to purchase a stove for the home this year.

An elaborate project this year by the boys and girls is the making of Christmas tree decorations and centerpieces. Two of the mothers, Mrs. Ronald Ehrke and Mrs. John K. Auld, purchased the raw materials in Chicago, and the youngsters have made tree ornaments, centerpieces and decorated candles, all with skill and imagination.

Other booths at the bazaar will be candy and cake, white elephant, books and comics. The latter is already doing a running business—used comic books are sold at reduced prices to boys and girls who have not read these particular volumes. Cake and coffee will be sold all afternoon during the sale.

People from all over Arlington Heights are invited to help the children of Sherwood make their Christmas bazaar a big success. The children will have their most fun of all when, just before the holidays, they will take their gifts to Bensenville.

What Do You Think?

One time when the "voice of the people" will really count is right now and right here. Opinions of individuals about the one-way street plan are being sought. A call or letter to the Herald will be very welcome.

How do you feel? Does it matter that you often have to go around the block to get to the right place? Do extra parking spaces and wider driving areas help you to get around the village more efficiently, to shop with greater ease?

Remember, the one-way street plan is on 60-day trial, and the end results will be determined by what you, the resident, wants.

First view of the Arlington high school basketball teams will be this Friday when the varsity and frosh-sophs open the season against Downers Grove. The frosh-soph game will begin at 7:15 in the new gym. The varsity game will follow.

The underclassmen can hardly do much better, for they were co-champs of the West Suburban league last year. The varsity, on the other hand, had room for improvement after their up-and-down season last year. LaGrange is, of course, again the favorite, for several of their state championship team of last year have returned, including the star center, Ted Caiazza.

Plenty of seats are always available in the 4,000-seat gym at Arlington, but the choicest seats are reserved at $9 for the 9-game home season.

Holiday Workshop

The art study group of the Arlington Heights Woman's club will hold its next meeting in the form of a holiday workshop December 9 at 11 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Edelblute, 109 S. Pine st.

It is suggested that members interested in attending this meeting bring a sandwich. Dessert and coffee will be served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. E. Lohr and Mrs. Lyle Ewing.

The theme of the workshop will be Christmas decorations and gifts and it will be carried out by the committee who will illustrate various ideas and how to execute them. Mrs. J. E. Lohr will bring her felt angels that are so effective on Christmas trees and how to make a jeweled Christmas tree will be shown.

Heights Exchange Students Prepare For Florida Guests In January

The 30 boys and girls who have enrolled for the exchange program with Manatee county high school, Bradenton, Fla., have formed eight committees to prepare for the local program.

Each of the thirty has been given the name of the individual who will stay in his home and share his experiences through the week of January 15-23. A lively correspondence has started between most of the pairs.

THE FOLLOWING committees have been formed: Etiquette, Judy Meyer, chairman, Cynthia Lockwood, Judi Hall, and Charlene Sorenson; Know our schools and community, George Bullwinkel, chairman, John Landmeier, and Bill Gappert; Know Chicago and the area, Bonnie Barrow and Doug Morrissey, co-chairmen, Alan Smeby and Garwood Williams; Know Illinois, Cindy Tice chairman, Bob Harrington, Kathlene Cooke, and Bill Malcolm; Visitation of classes, Jane Spears and Frank Precilio co-chairmen, Judy Laird and Bill Garrett; Entertainment, Ada Kilbury and Dave Ells co-chairmen, Dick Christian and Bob DeNapoli; Exhibit and Scrapbook, Janet Siegel chairman, Marcia Hausler, Jon Busse and Dave Fellingham; Round-up of talent, Charlene Rehfeldt chairman.

These committees are investigating the areas of activity indicated by their names, in order to recommend definite actions to the group as a whole.

Joan Keppler is acting as recording secretary for the group, and Sana Franke is corresponding secretary.

A meeting of students and their parents is being planned, but a definite time has not been assigned as yet.

The students who act as hosts here will leave for Bradenton February 12, returning February 21. Harold L. Slichenmyer, director of student affairs, and Mrs. Hazel Stuart, dean of girls will accompany them on the trip.

Cotillion Club Dinner Dance

The Cotillion club of Arlington Heights will hold its formal dinner dance at Mount Prospect Country club December 5.

The club will be open for cocktails at 7:30 p.m. and dinner will be served at 8:30 p.m. Jack Cavan's orchestra will furnish the music.

Dorcas Aid To Meet

The Dorcas Aid of St. Peter Lutheran church will meet for the annual Christmas party December 8 at 8 p. m. in the activity building.

Members should enter the Ladies Aid room.

Wins 'Voice Of Democracy' Contest Here

ROSEMARIE HAUSSNER

Rosemarie Haussner, senior at Arlington Heights high school, has been named the winner of the "Voice of Democracy" contest sponsored by the Wheeling Township Jaycees. Miss Haussner competed against a field of 10 contestants.

The "Voice of Democracy" contest is an annual nationwide contest for high school students. Each year local contests are sponsored by Jaycee chapters throughout the nation. Students are required to prepare a five minute talk on the subject, "I Speak for Democracy."

A DISC recording of the local winner's speech is sent to Springfield where it is judged along with the recorded speeches of other local winners in the state. A state winner is selected and his recording is then entered in the national contest. Prizes are awarded to the winners on all levels of the competition and the state winners are given an expense free trip to Washington, D.C. and a side tour to Williamsburg, Va.

The purpose of the contest is to inspire young citizens to set forth their beliefs and understanding in regard to the meaning of American democracy. It is felt that these young people contribute much to a fresh, hopeful expression of the best that is American.

The following students participated in the local contest: Virginia Ruhnow, Judy Peterson, Joyce Nilsson, Carolyn Osbun, Alice Olson, Pete Swanson, Jim Hodges, Ada Kilbury, Robert Ellis, and the winner, Rosemarie Haussner.

MISS HAUSSNER came to Arlington high in her sophomore year. She was an active member of the debate club, French club and social science club. Arlington high, however, is losing Miss Haussner to Pennsylvania, as she and her family moved to Pittsburgh Monday. Rosemarie plans to go on to college, where she will prepare herself for a job as a grade school teacher.

Leotta Hampton, world affairs teacher and Larry Jenness, speech teacher, from the Arlington high school were the judges. Eugene Oliver, Jaycee vice president and also a high school teacher, was chairman of the contest committee.

Rented Police Cars Considered By Village Board

Whether or not the next new police cars in Arlington Heights will be rented or purchased will be decided after bids on both methods are received and opened by the village board January 5.

Trustee Richard Bronwell, chairman of the police committee, told the board Tuesday night that according to present figures it would cost approximately $600 more to rent police cars than owning and maintaining village police cars. However, on the rental basis all gas, oil, repairs, tires and insurance are taken care of by the rental agency and new police cars are issued at the end of every 25,000 miles.

IT WAS FELT that by advertising for bids it might be found the cost of the rental cars would be nearer the costs of operating the village owned vehicles.

The village engineer was instructed to draw up plans and specifications for fencing in the water tower and pumping station on Northwest hwy. and Douglas, and submit them to the board for its approval. The board feels the area should be fenced as a safety measure to keep children from climbing the tower or entering the pumping station.

The zoning board of appeals recommended to the board that it approve the rezoning of lots 30-31-32 in Block 6 of Westgate subdivision. The property is presently zoned residential and the owners are seeking a commercial classification. The board held the first reading of the rezoning ordinance Tuesday night.

FINAL APPROVAL was given on the vacation of streets in the area that will be used for the proposed Kensington road shopping center to be built by John Lindstrom and associates.

The board accepted a bid of $200 for the razing of the residence at 112 W. Wing, which was submitted by Leo B. Gammill. The building is to be either torn down, or removed from the site and out of the village limits within 60 days.

Two letters, one opposed and the other in favor of the one-way street program, were read by the village clerk. They will be turned over to the plan commission for further consideration.

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian church wrote a letter asking the board to take whatever steps necessary to make the Arlington Heights railroad crossings safer.

Two resignations were submitted to the board. One was from Fred Taillon, who asked to be relieved of his duties as a special police officer. The other was from Willard C. Walters, who asked to be relieved of his duties on the zoning board of appeals. He said his resignation would take effect at the board's convenience.

BLACK'S Memorial Home was given permission to move a tree which would block the driveway of their proposed parking lot on the southeast corner of Eastman and Vail.

The proposed lot will accommodate 22 or 23 autos and will be used for parking during funerals. Richard Black told the paper he will make the lot available for Sunday church patrons and for other church meetings during the week if he is not using the lot in connection with a funeral.

Postmaster Urges Early Mailing For Christmas

It isn't that Postmaster Virginia F. Dodge can't wait like the rest of us for jolly old Santa. But she'd be the happiest woman in town if tomorrow were December 25.

Instead, there's still 22 days before Christmas, and nobody knows how many tons of Christmas cards and gift packages are yet to come.

"Our main problem right now," the postmaster noted, "is that too many people are waiting to mail everything at once. We know what's coming. But we don't know when."

PUT YOURSELF in the postmaster's place. You've just hired a group of temporary postal workers. You're expecting packages. Big packages, little packages. Neatly-wrapped and poorly-wrapped packages. Some insured, some registered.

There will be Christmas cards by the thousands. From past experience, you know the job gets bigger and bigger each year. What would you do?

Postmaster Dodge has worked out her own answer. She asks the public to cooperate, by following a few time-saving suggestions:

"WRAP AND MAIL your gifts two or three at a time. Don't let them pile up on you now, or at the post office later. Begin with those to be addressed to distant states."

This year all parcel post going out-of-state should be mailed by December 5, for local delivery by December 10. Size and weight limitations now in effect vary according to destination. Ask about them when you visit the post office to buy stamps.

In some zones, for example, parcel post may not exceed 72 inches in length and girth combined and 40 pounds in weight. While in others the combined length and girth may be 100 inches and the weight up to 70 pounds.

"The important thing to remember about Christmas cards," says Postmaster Dodge, "is to send them by first-class mail, and place your return address on the envelope."

Two Community Nurses Check 4,800 Students, Maintain Health Program

those with whom he came in daily contact.

Certain students are given a more thorough eye test, when the occasion calls for one. The community nurses use the Massachusetts vision testing equipment donated for that purpose by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 981.

THE AUDIOMETER used for hearing tests was donated by the Lions club and other philanthropic organizations in the village. The machine is equipped with 20 head sets so as many as 20 hearing tests can be given at one time.

As a result of these many tests the nurses have been able to discover hearing, vision and dental deficiencies in the early stages, many of which can be corrected. Had they been neglected for a longer period the child might have had a permanent defect.

For example, last year only 43 per cent of the students had their teeth in good condition when they entered school. In September of this year 60 per cent of the students had their teeth in good repair. In other words the health program is educating the children and parents of the need for proper dental care and more parents are seeing that the children have it as a prerequisite before returning to school.

Students are required to have a physical examination before entering the kindergarten, first grade, fifth grade and high school, or before entering the school system for the first time, regardless of what grade they are in.

IMMUNIZATION for diphtheria is available each year to kindergarten, first and fifth grade students, and anyone who needs it may get a smallpox vaccination during the school year. Local dentists and medical doctors donate their services to aid this community health program.

Mrs. Carroll said parents are urged to keep their children at home when they have bad colds. "If they are not well enough to go out to recess or take gym, they are not well enough to be in school, and it is one way of deciding if they are ill enough to keep home from school," said Mrs. Carroll.

Cases where patients are released from the hospital, or whom a doctor has ordered abed, are referred to the community nurses, who in turn go to the patient's home and instruct those who are to care for the invalid. This instruction includes making a sick bed, bathing the patient, and other duties necessary to the care of a bedridden person. The community nurses also give shots or administer other medical aid to patients who are well enough to live alone but can not administer these medical needs themselves.

MRS. CARROLL has been the Arlington Heights community nurse for nine years, and with each year of service she has added to the health program in the community until today it is one of the finest in the county.

"This has been possible," said Mrs. Carroll, "because of the complete amicable cooperation with all taxing bodies interested in this service. I have been given a free hand in developing this program, which has received the approval of the public health committee in Arlington Heights, which is made up of representatives from interested philanthropic organizations, school boards and a few local doctors.

The health program is rounded out with a special health officer, Mrs. Charles Bloecker, who is responsible for checking up and reporting on all contagious diseases, as well as inspecting restaurant, food stores, and rest rooms for sanitary conditions. She also investigates any reports of unsanitary conditions that may be endangering the lives of citizens.

Cook County Raises Rezoning Fees

All filing fees for zoning changes and variations in the unincorporated areas of Cook county were raised Tuesday by the County Board of Commissioners.

William J. Mortimer, enforcing officer of the county zoning ordinance, and Walter T. Popjoy, secretary of the zoning board of appeals, had urged the fee increase as needed because of increased expenses, mostly for legal advertisements needed by law.

A public service subcommittee recommended the increase after the legal department advised the increase was authorized under state law.

Lake county, Ill., has a flat $100 fee which has been declared legal by Illinois Atty. Gen. Castle. Popjoy said the new graduated Cook county fee would be fairer to the small land owner.

The new fees, which went into effect at noon Tuesday, with the old fees in parenthesis, are: petition to rezone less than five acres, $40 ($20); five acres to 19.99 acres, $50 ($25); 20 acres to 39.99 acres, $75 ($35); 40 acres and over $100 ($50).

Petitions for variation of setback and sideyard regulations $25 ($10); petitions for variation of minimum widths or minimum areas—less than five acres $25, 5-9.99 acres $35, 10-19.99 $45, 20-39.99 $55, 40-79.99 $65, 80 acres or over $75 (all were $10).

Second to file at the new rates was Arthur W. Busse, Rt. 2, Box 901, Des Plaines, seeking the rezoning from Farming to Business of 1½ acres of land at the southwest corner of Oakton st. and Elmhurst rd., Elk Grove township. Busse is represented by Attorney Charles H. Froeb.

Object to Lights

Four property owners objected to the $100,000 lighting project in the Des Plaines business district, and may delay the entire installation.

Favorites for Flavor

by LOIS SEILER

A suggestion for a real "stick to your ribs" breakfast for these cold, snowy mornings is being featured this week.

Mrs. Ray F. Sander is sharing with us an old family recipe for homemade beef sausage which originated with her grandmother and will really perk up early morning appetites.

This delicious German sausage has a wonderful flavor, with just a subtle touch of spice. Its list of ingredients includes short ribs, onions, the broth in which these two ingredients have been cooked, and oatmeal, with salt and allspice as seasoning.

Mrs. Sander makes this sausage in a large quantity, as it can be stored in the refrigerator for a month or more without spoiling, or the sausage can be packaged and stored in a deep freeze.

This beef sausage is a favorite with the Sanders' three children: Darlene, 18, Bobby, 14, and Rae Estelle, 8. They like it accompanied by bread and syrup. French toast or waffles should taste mighty good with it, too.

The Sanders also enjoy this sausage for a Saturday night supper. They live at 304 N. Douglas in Arlington Heights.

The quantity made by this recipe is enough for four or five meals for the Sander family.

Beef Sausage

7 pounds short ribs
8 whole onions, medium-size
2 cups oatmeal
1½ tablespoons salt
1½ tablespoons allspice.

Cook short ribs and onions together until done. When done, remove meat from ribs and put meat and onions through a meat grinder. Set aside.

Take four cups of broth in which the meat was cooked and add the oatmeal. Cook for three minutes.

Add meat to cooked oatmeal and season with salt and allspice. Stir well. Store the sausage in a large bowl in the refrigerator and use as needed.

When ready to use sausage, steam the amount needed in about three tablespoons of water.

Field Trips Enable Students to Study Subjects First Hand

Field trips are one of the many methods used to study a subject in the Arlington Heights public elementary schools. They give the student an opportunity to see first hand the particular unit of work they are studying.

Most of the trips are planned in connection with subjects in social studies and science. Places visited include the Field Museum, Planatarium, Museum of Science and Industry, Chicago Historical Society, Brookfield Zoo, local industrial plants, sewage plant, and farms.

Each trip is planned by the group that is to take it. This enables them to know what to look for while on the trip. Students hold an open discussion on the trip when they return to class, in order to exchange ideas and elaborate on the subject being studied.

All students from first grade through eighth grade are eligible to take a field trip. Buses are charted for those not within walking distance of the school and the costs are pro-rated. A teacher always accompanies the group, and she is assisted by one or more room mothers. The trips are taken during the school day and youngsters must have a parents permit before being allowed ta take the trip.

Recently students in 5-2 at the South school made a field trip to the Chicago Historical Society. They were accompanied by their teacher, Fred Noble and room mother, Mrs. Leslie Beckway.

The museum separated the group into two tours of the many exhibits on American and Chicago history. The students ate their lunches across the street in a restaurant because the museum does not provide any lunching facilities.

Science Convention

Five members of the science department of Arlington Heights high school attended the convention of the Central Association of Science Teachers at the Congress hotel, November 27, 28.

Nelson Lowry, head of the science department, was chairman of the Biology section of the convention. Robert Kemman and Carl Nelson served on the banquet committee. Roy D. Meiller and Alvin Kulieke also attended.

Kathy Shanklin, Daniel Califf Repeat Vows

In a double ring, candlelight ceremony November 21, Miss Kathy Dee Shanklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shanklin, 217 S. Brighton, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Daniel Califf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone Califf, Carthage, Ill.

Rev. Birger Dahl officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony held at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Merwyn Reis of Arlington Heights sang "Because," "I Love Thee," and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Richard Everett, also of Arlington Heights.

The floral setting at the altar was composed of mums and feathered asters. Clusters of asters with white satin bows decorated each pew.

The bride wore a white chantilly lace gown fashioned with a scoop neckline trimmed with pleated nylon net, a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt of lace over net and satin. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip length veil in place. The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a bouquet of white carnations and green ivy.

Mrs. Michael Mealmen of Aurora was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Janice Hackbarth and Miss Dorothy Heidorn, both of Arlington Heights. Mrs. Mealmen wore a ballerina length gown of copper colored silk taffeta fashioned with a tiny jacket and full skirt. The bridesmaids' gowns were identical in lighter shades of apricot. All the attendants carried asters colored to match their gowns and surrounded by oak leaves.

Miss Nancy Bente of Cleveland, Ohio, was the flower girl, and Richard Carr of Arlington Heights, the ringbearer.

Philip Califf, brother of the groom, was best man. Roy Anderson of Oak Park and Michael Shanklin, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Shanklin wore a beige moire afternoon dress trimmed with mink. Her accessories were beige and brown. The groom's mother wore a navy blue taffeta afternoon dress which featured a silver metallic design. Her hat was of white brushed velour and her other accessories were navy blue. Both mothers wore corsages of peach tinted cymbidium orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors. Following a ten day honeymoon the groom returned to Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., where he is stationed with the army. The bride returned to her teaching duties. She teaches home economics in high school.

Miss Chapman Is Bride Of Melvin Heaver Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Nagle of Glenview announce the marriage of their daughter, Maravene Lee Chapman, to Melvin R. Heaver Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Heaver Sr., Palatine.

The couple were married November 2 and are now making their home in Palatine.

Alumnae Sponsor Benefit Card Party

To bring Christmas cheer to youngsters in the University of Illinois Research and Educational hospitals, the University's Chicago alumnae club will sponsor a benefit card party at 2 p.m. December 5 in the Illini Center, Hotel La Salle.

Every Christmas season since 1935 the Chicago alumnae have provided Christmas parties for children confined to beds, carts, and wheel chairs who cannot go home for Christmas and who often spend many long, dreary months in the hospital.

Proceeds of the December 5 card party will go to the eighteenth annual party to be held December 19. (B4

El Rey Music Students Hold Concert Sunday

The annual Suburban concert program sponsored by students of El Rey Music Center, 110 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, will be given at the high school December 6 at 2:30 p.m.

More than 100 pupils on guitar and accordion will participate, featuring solos, duets, trios and bands. Scheduled to last about two hours, the program will include a variety of music from classical to popular.

The program is under the personal supervision of Elmer Herrick and Ray Gartsch, co-owners of the El Rey Music Center.

DAR Chapter To Hold Annual Yule Program

Eli Skinner chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Ira S. Parker, 608 Burton pl., Arlington Heights, December 3 at 8 p.m.

Assisting Mrs. Parker will be Mrs. Mark M. Cleaver, Mrs. J. Alton Reitzel and Mrs. A. G. Cubley.

The program will be given by Mrs. Robert L. Fontaine on the subject of "Christmas in the Colonial Times." Christmas carols will be sung by the group.

A chapter tradition at Yuletide is the giving of Christmas gifts to the boys and girls at the DAR approved school at Tamassee, S.C. Members are asked to indicate on their gift the sex and age of the recipient. Tamassee was founded by the DAR in 1919. It is situated close to the juncture of South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia. It serves 80 communities in the area where there are no other educational facilities.

Tamassee enrolls approximately 400 children from first grade through high schools. Graduates can go on to a university or college. High school courses are given in agriculture, domestic science, pre-nursing and industrial arts.

Area Women Attend Meeting

More than 700 delegates and visitors from all parts of the country met at Hotel Cleveland, Cleveland, Ohio, for the third quadrennial of the Women's guilds of the Evangelical and Reformed church. These delegates came from 2,131 guilds representing 365,000 women.

The sessions were attended by Miss Bessie Linnenkohl of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Harold Woerner of Prospect Heights, Mrs. Paul Irion of Long Grove and Mrs. William Kamphenkel of Waukegan.

Using the theme of the quadrennial "Unto the Stature of Christ," nationally-known speakers brought stirring messages.

In her staff report, Miss Florence Partridge, Executive Secretary, in reviewing the growth and potentialities of the Women's Guild stressed the importance of every woman being well-informed and consecrated to her task of projecting Christian principles into her home and community. New officers were elected and installed.

Another high-light of the quadrennial was the banquet held in the ball room of the Hotel Cleveland at which time the Heidelberg College Concert choir under the direction of Prof. Ferris E. Ohl, was enthusiastically received.

Kappa Gamma Alumnae To Meet

Northwest suburban alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma will meet at the home of Mrs. Leo K. Hunter, 940 Chestnut st., Arlington Heights, December 8 at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting will be a dessert luncheon at which a "white elephant" sale will be held.

Chicago area alumnae groups of Kappa Kappa Gamma pay the salary of a psychiatrist on the staff of the Women's and Children's hospital, Chicago. The services of the registered psychiatrist are available to out-patients in the hospital.

The sorority also has furnished and maintains a room at the hospital and helps financially in other projects suggested by the hospital staff.

Each Christmas a party for 65 children invited by the hospital, is given by the Chicago area Kappas. The northwest suburban group made and decorated Christmas stockings as their contribution to the party

Presenting The Younger Generation

One of the favorite activities of Linda Maria Raica, pictured first, is watching Ding Dong school and Childcraft on television.

Blonde-haired, blue-eyed Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raica, 914 N. Ridge, Arlington Heights.

This 4½-year-old likes to play with her dolls and doll house, and enjoys coloring, painting and playing with clay. She also likes to be outdoors and ride her tricycle. She has a pet canary.

Linda attends Sunday school at St. John Evangelical and Reformed church. A grandmother, Mrs. Selma Halverson, lives with the Raica family, while Linda's other grandmother, Mrs. Mary Raica, lives in Chicago.

Mischievous Lad

Typically all boy and full of mischief is the youngster pictured next. Kenneth Dean Meyer is 3½ years old, has blond hair and blue eyes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Meyer, 705 N. Vail, Arlington Heights.

Young Kenneth has already displayed an interest in music and loves to sing songs and play records on his phonograph. And he likes to have story books read to him.

Riding his tricycle outdoors is another activity that Kenneth enjoys. He loves his baby sister, Pamela Joy, who is 7 months old. This young fellow attends Sunday school at St. Peter Lutheran church.

Kenneth and Pamela's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Held and Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer, all of Arlington Heights.

Young Student

Kathy King, pictured next, is probably one of the public library's best customers, she takes out so many books! Kathy loves to have stories read to her and is looking forward to the time that she can read all by herself.

This 4½-year-old has brown hair and blue eyes. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. King, 824 N. Patton, Arlington Heights.

Kathy has a happy nature, enjoys music, and loves to attend Sunday school at the First Presbyterian church. She also likes to color and draw, enjoys seeing travel pictures, and is a blotter for all types of information.

A big help to her mother, Kathy likes to help care for her baby sister, Susan, who is 1 year old, and her baby brother, Jimmy, who is 7 weeks. She has a pet cocker spaniel named L. B. Sambo.

Kathy's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hurja of Oak Park and Mr. and Mrs. James King of River Forest.

Smiling Lad

Pictured last is Jeffrey Crable, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crable, 308 W. Wilson, Palatine. Jeffrey has blond hair and blue eyes, and was 4 years old when this picture was taken.

We are sorry that we were unable to contact Jeffrey's parents for further information.

Stork Feathers

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stauder, 705 S. Highland ave., Arlington Heights, are parents of their second child, a son, Daniel Arthur, born November 16 at St. Francis hospital, Evanston. The baby weighed 8 pounds, 3 ounces. He has an older sister, Melanie Ann, who is four. Mr. and Mrs. William Stauder, Decatur, and Mrs. William Webber, Arlington Heights, are the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fischer, 917 N. Patton, Arlington Heights, announce the birth of their son, Randall Norman, born November 5 at Lutheran Deaconess hospital. They have a daughter, Sharon. Mr. and Mrs. G. Hoffman of Arlington Heights are the grandparents.

Parents of their first child, a daughter named Catherine Michelle, are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming Jr., 212 N. Brighton, Arlington Heights. The baby weighed 9½ pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tichy of Arlington Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming Sr. of California are the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dobbins, Rand rd., Arlington Heights, are parents of a daughter, Linda Rose, born November 20, at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, weighing 7 pounds. Her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Earl McNeely of Arlington Heights, and her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Max Terhune of Batavia. The baby has a brother, Billy, 5, and a sister, Dee Ann, 7. Mr. Dobbins is superintendent of the sewerage treatment plant in Arlington Heights.

Marilyn Franke Made President Of College Group

Marilyn Franke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Franke, 120 S. Pine ave., Arlington Heights, has been elected president of Pi Beta Phi sorority at Iowa State college, Ames, Iowa. Marilyn is in her junior year.

An invitation to join Phi Upsilon

Omicron, home economics honorary sorority, has also been extended to Marilyn. Members for this society are chosen on the basis of scholarship and leadership qualities. Marilyn is one of 30 students who has been invited to membership this year.

Des Plaines Store Is Girl Scout Supply Agency

The Girl Scout equipment agency for the Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county is Spiegler's department store, Des Plaines. So that Spiegler's can serve the council to the best of its ability, leaders and parents must give ample notification of their needs to Spiegler's.

The store carries a stock of nearly all Girl Scout equipment including: uniforms, publications, records, gift items, etc. Leader's suits or the one-piece short-sleeved Senior Girl Scout uniforms, which are worn by some leaders but not Senior Scouts, can be ordered.

Although a fairly large stock of Brownie and Girl Scout uniforms is kept on hand at all times, two weeks' advance notice must be given prior to a fly-up or the formation of a new troop, which occasions would necessitate a large quantity. Many times there are numerous fly-ups throughout the council within a short period of time. Special orders will be cheerfully filled if ordered at least two weeks in advance.

Any leaders desiring quantities of gift items for Christmas presents to their troops must order them immediately. Otherwise, delivery cannot be definitely promised.

Orders can be placed by calling the Girl Scout department at Spiegler's department store or by sending them a postal card or letter.

Badges, pins, troop crests, and flags can be obtained through the Girl Scout office. The office, too, must be notified in advance when large quantities or special orders are desired.

Both the equipment agency and the Girl Scout office are trying to serve the needs of a very large council. Leaders, council committees, troop committees, and parents are asked to cooperate by giving advance notice of their needs.

Elaine Schwolow And Lou Dochterman Wed

Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran church, Palatine, was the scene November 21 of the wedding of Miss Elaine L. Schwolow and Lou Dochterman. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Schwolow, 318 W. Slade st., Palatine, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dochterman, 5114 Grace st., Chicago.

Baskets of white pompons and vases of mums, palms and candelabra formed the setting for the candlelight ceremony.

The bride wore a traditional white satin gown fashioned with appliqued lace on the bodice and neckline. Appliqued lace flowers were also scattered over the front of the full skirt, which ended in a long train. The crown, which held her fingertip veil in place, was worn by her grandmother 53 years ago. The bride, given in marriage by her father, carried a bouquet of white feathered mums with an orchid center.

Mrs. Vernette Linnemann of Mayville, Wis., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. The Misses Irene and Betty Jost and Miss Marilyn Muehfeldt, all of Palatine, and Mrs. Charlotte Sturday of Chicago, sister of the groom, were the bridesmaids. Donna Bretsnyder of Palatine was the flower girl, and Miss June Franzen of Crystal Lake and Miss Adelyn Ladendorf of Palatine were the candlelighters.

The attendants wore velvet gowns fashioned similar to coat dresses with insets of net over taffeta in front of the skirts. They carried bouquets of feathered mums. Mrs. Linnemann wore rust and carried yellow flowers, Miss Irene Jost wore burgundy and carried pink mums; Miss Betty Jost, forest green and pink and yellow mums; Miss Muehfeldt, brown and bronze and yellow mums, and Mrs. Sturdy, honey gold and bronze mums. The flower girl wore a rust gown and carried yellow mums. The candlelighters wore aqua velvet gowns, identical to those of the other attendants, and red rose wrist corsages.

Seth Dochterman, brother of the groom, was best man.

James Schwolow, brother of the bride, Lenny Schneller of Chicago, Al Wedell of Bensenville and Edward Collins of Des Moines, Iowa, cousin of the groom, were the ushers.

Rev. Hilmar Th. Rosenberg officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony. Clyde Moffett of Palatine sang, "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Andre Butenschoen.

Following the service a reception and supper were held for 350 guests at Fred's Place, Rand rd.

The couple honeymooned in the southern states and now are making their home at 223 W. Slade st., Palatine. (Bak Photo

Georgia Mitsch And Floyd Schmidt Wed

(Community Camera

In a double ring ceremony November 28, Miss Georgia Rose Mitsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Mitsch, 1321 N. Belmont ave., Arlington Heights, became the bride of Floyd Ray Schmidt of Metropolis, Ill.

An aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stevens of Brook, Ind., took the place of the groom's deceased parents.

Rev. Robert Reicher officiated at the 11 o'clock service held at St. James Catholic church. Miss Joyce Karowski sang "Ave Maria" accompanied by Sister Amabilia at the organ. Two bouquets of mums and pompons decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a satin gown trimmed with lace and fashioned with a full skirt of nylon net over satin. The illusion neckline featured a lace mandarin collar. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a halo of white rosebuds, and she carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Theresa Scholle of Chicago was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Joeine Rusnak and Miss Romaine Wilmoski, both of Chicago. The attendants wore gowns fashioned with red velvet bodices and white net skirts. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of red and white carnations, and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of red carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mitsch wore an aqua silk shantung afternoon dress with black and white accessories. Her corsage was composed of red roses and white tea roses. The groom's aunt wore a pink lace dress and white and black accessories. Pink and white carnations formed her corsage.

Paul Mitsch, brother of the bride, was best man. Bob Martin of Arlington Heights and Jim Mitsch, cousin of the bride, were the ushers.

A reception for 250 guests was held at the Edison Park Recreation hall.

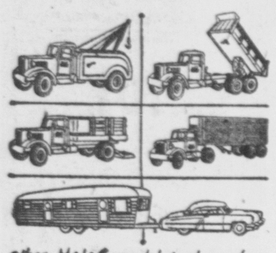

They honeymooned in St. Louis, Mo., and are now making their home at 1321 N. Belmont ave., Arlington Heights.

Miss Gallagher To Speak Before Catholic Women

The Catholic Woman's club of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic church, Arlington Heights, will be privileged to hear Miss Catharine Gallagher, eminent speaker featured by the Thomas Moore Book Talk Service December 10 at 8:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Her subject will be "So You Don't Have Time to Read." Miss Gallagher's talk will be held in conjunction with a book fair, sponsored by the library and literature committee of the Catholic Woman's club. The talk and the book fair will be the program half of the regular December meeting of the club.

Miss Gallagher has been speaking to audiences in the Archdiocese of Chicago for several years and has appeared before various kinds of audiences, including Parent-Teacher associations, Catholic Women's clubs, alumnae, and philanthropic organizations.

At a time when Pope Pius XII has warned against mediocrity, talks about books must not only entertain but instruct and inspire. This is the aim of Miss Gallagher.

A widely varied group of books is covered in each of her talks and a copy of an annotated list of current, choice books is given to each listener. Miss Gallagher stresses the value and importance of good books in Christian life and in counteracting the moral and intellectual decadence of the modern world.

Miss Gallagher's background includes post-graduate studies at Columbia university and work as a magazine short-story editor as well as extensive experience in all phases of the book world. Her column "From Behind the Books" appears in "Books on Trial."

Tea hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Harry Gubbins. Members are invited to bring guests. A guest fee of 50 cents will be charged.

Methodists Plan Family Party

All members of the family are invited to family night which will be held December 8 at 8 p.m. in the upstairs fellowship hall of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights.

The program has been planned by the Women's Society of Christian Service. A nursery will be provided for children under school age.

After a short period of devotional meditation led by Mrs. Lura Whitelaw, chairman of the spiritual life committee of the WSCS, a short play will be given by the Village Players, through the courtesy of their talent bank.

The play, "Amahl and the Night Visitors," has been adapted by Mrs. Kay Hawley from the opera written by Menotti. The director is Mrs. Gustav Staahl and the characters will include, Ricky Hawley, Mrs. Donald Nygren, Jim Solon, Dave Meineke, Donald Nygren, Joe Crittenden, Bruce Nygren, Sherry Crittenden, Grace, Gregg and Connie Beckway, Roberta Hawley and David and Lynn Shaughnessy.

This program was arranged by Mrs. Madgel Stockdale, program chairman for the WSCS.

High Club To Renew Toys For Underprivileged

Girls of the Heights Catholic High club are planning to get together at St. James Catholic school for their next meeting December 7 at 7 p.m.

At this time they will renew used toys and wrap them for the underprivileged children.

Students of St. James Catholic school have been asked to bring their discarded toys that are in good condition to the church basement during this week including the morning of December 6.

Members, who have worked on the Christmas project, will give a party for the children of Cordi-Marian Settlement, a haven for Mexican and Italian children, December 19. Santa will be present to distribute the toys.

Members interested in singing Christmas carols during the holiday season should call Judy Babs, CLearbrook 3-6656.

High school girls are reminded to join together in receiving holy communion at the 10 a.m. mass December 6 at St. James church.

Brooms Made By Blind to Be Sold By Arlington Lions

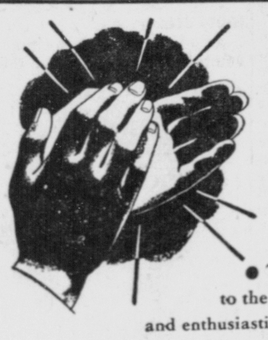

Brooms made from broom corn by the blind employees of Arkansas Lighthouse for the Blind will be sold by the Arlington Heights Lions club from December 9 through December 19.

Members of the club will canvass the entire community during that period. The week end of December 19 brooms will be sold at various street corners in the business district.

Anyone who needs a broom is urged to purchase it through the Lions. They will be selling kitchen brooms, warehouse brooms, whisk brooms and toy brooms of excellent quality. They will also be selling rubber door mats.

A purchase of one or more of these items will serve a threefold purpose:

1. Provide a means of livelihood for the blind employees making brooms.
2. Provide the Lions club with funds that will be expended in service in this community, and for this community's youth.
3. Provide the buyer with a good broom or door mat.

WOMEN DRIVERS

Harriet Quimby didn't know what she started—back in 1911 when she became the first American woman to hold a pilot's license.

Stemming from her first flight, made back in the days when women didn't even have the vote, have come flight instructors, crop-dusters, air-taxi pilots, glider pilots—and even seven helicopter pilots.

Today, more than 16,000 U. S. women hold pilot's licenses, five times as many as during World War II, and that number is increasing at an annual rate of about 1,500 per year.

Posting The Guard

"Cast thy Bread upon the Water: for thou shalt find it after many a day." Ecclesiastes 11.1

This quote from the Bible is truly symbolic of the national guard's service to country and community. It is indicative of a sound investment: the investment for peace and security in time of conflict and an investment for service and aid in times of tranquility.

It is true the national guard is organized and supported with funds that, at one time or another, we as taxpayers paid in either personal income taxes or through state taxes. That money is being invested rather than being spent.

THE CONCLUSION of hostilities in World War II led the way to a great era of Government scrapping: the utter destruction of millions of dollars worth of military equipment. With the reduced peace-time army, the equipment was either destroyed, "mothballed" or sold as surplus. A great deal of this equipment was assigned to the national guard.

The outbreak of the Korean emergency created an immediate demand for fighting equipment. The task of taking the "mothballing" from the preserved equipment was a long and laborious one for plastics and grease can be removed in only so much time. Then, too, the weapons and materials were not always in proper operating condition so repairs had to be made.

NATIONAL GUARD returned to service $693,000,000 worth of weapons, materials and facilities. These weapons and equipment were never out of service for they had been used to train citizen-soldiers. The important thing to note is that the equipment returned to service was in top condition and functioning properly. It was immediately sent to battle. The guard had saved U. S. taxpayers millions of dollars: a large return for so small an investment.

Thinking along those same lines, I realized recently how much the guard contributes to community prosperity and well-being. Although the guard is always on hand for local emergencies; always ready tp pitch in with aid or extend itself in any service for the community: the National Guard has one more asset from which the entire community benefits. The asset is money. Yes, money that goes to merchants and businessmen in the form of business profits.

After checking our files for the fiscal year 1952, I found that forty men, the membership of the Arlington guard unit, were paid $12,967.03 for service rendered on drill nights, range firing trips, and summer encampment. The money, paid in good faith, was spent in good faith. It was spent right in our own community. The guardsmen and their wives spent it on the necessities of life and on some of the luxuries they might never have had.

One thing is certain; each and every businessman has benefited from the guard's presence in the community and will do so in the years to come. Here again, you can see how a small investment can return itself many times in many ways.

Judge Rudolph Desort, Palatine Resident, to Resume Private Practice

Judge Rudolph Desort, who completes 23 years of service when he retires from the Superior court bench next Saturday, announced yesterday he will return to private practice. He has formed a partnership with Atty. Jerome Johnson with offices at 1 N. LaSalle st. He resides on Quinten rd., Palatine.

While serving on the Superior court bench, Judge Desort sponsored a number of marital and divorce reform measures before the state legislature. These included the law requiring a three-day waiting period between issuance of a marriage license and the marriage ceremony, aimed at abolishing justice of the peace marriage mills, as well as "run-away" and "gin" marriages. He also sponsored the present law limiting damages in breach of promise and alienation of affections suits to the damages actually sustained.

Heights Debaters Win 4 Out of 6 Contests At Hammond Saturday

Arlington Heights debaters won four out of six contests in a tournament at Hammond, Indiana, last Saturday. This was the second tournament of the year for the varsity, as they opened the season with a practice tourney at LaGrange, November 15.

The affirmative team of Bern Schnyder and Jack Johnston defeated South Bend, Hammond, and Clark and ranked fourth among the 12 teams competing. The negative squad, Natalie Glover and Violet Jeffery, defeated Niles and lost to Alvernia and Hammond.

The LaGrange tournament was a non-decision affair in which Rosemarie Haussner and Bern Schnyder represented Arlington on the affirmative with Peter Holloway and Natalie Glover debating on the negative.

This week eight Arlington students will take part in a practice tournament at Niles township high school. In addition to the students listed above, those participating will include Sally Fluent, Mickey Harris, and Peter Swanson.

The debate topic used in all three tournaments is "Resolved: That the President of the United States should be elected by a direct vote of the people." Action in the Metropolitan Debate Union, in which Arlington finished tenth last year, will get underway in January.

MRS. PAUL M. TABAR

Prospect

Baptized

Peggy Patricia Wrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wrath, 405 Bob-O-Link rd., was baptized November 29 at 3 p.m. at St. James Catholic church in Arlington Heights. Her godparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Schweitzer of Chicago. A small family party was held later at the Wrath home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Webber and sons, Larry and Bobby, 421 Bob-O-Link rd., spent Thanksgiving with friends in Chicago. Mrs. Webber spent Friday and Saturday visiting friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tabar and daughter, Karen, spent Thanksgiving day in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Tabar, parents of Paul Tabar, spent the past week here visiting their son and family. They are from Bangor, Mich.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Spaulding, 621 Oriole lane, entertained Mrs. Spaulding's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bost of Newell, W. Va. The Bost family has three children and will now make their home in Chicago.

SHOPPING with SHARON

So you want something different yet useful for that $1 gift? Among the variety of dollar gifts at the Bounty Fair, Northwest hwy., Palatine, that meet these requirements, we have selected the lovely "Breath of Country Fragrance" sachets. Unusually attractive, these sachets may be placed among clothes, handkerchiefs, sheets, towels and table linens, for they banish musty odors and make cupboards, drawers, garment bags, trunks and traveling bags fragrant. Moths don't like them because they're made with herbs. When the odor subsides, you just rub them vigorously and it will be magically revived.

The Bounty Fair now has its collection of old fashioned and modern Christmas tree ornaments on display. In the candle department, they are featuring fiesta candles. And don't forget that the Bounty Fair now has a large assortment of apothecary and candy jars.

The problem of what to get the men on your Christmas list will not seem so insurmountable when you visit Arlington Heights Pharmacy, 25 W. Davis st. There you will find gifts in all price ranges. There are playing cards in double deck gift packages . . one variety is plastic coated, another type are all plastic and are $7.50 a double deck. Then there are billfolds priced from $2.50 to $15 in a variety of leathers ranging from pigskin to baby calf. In the line of men's toiletries there are gift sets by Sportsman, Kings Men, Yardley and His. Other items in the men's gift court include travel sets, a humidor and pipe rack, electric razors, pens, cameras, manicure sets for men and Ronson lighters.

The test of a toy is the reception it gets from the younger generation. Last Friday I saw three little girls looking from all angles at the cuddle-up baby by Effanbee featured now at Hagenbring's Toy Circus. What better recommendation could a toy have? You'll find these dolls, dressed in snowsuits with one finger in their mouths, among the more than 200 styles of dolls at Hagenbring's.

I'm sure these same little girls would be more than pleased to receive one of the doll cribs, trunks, basinettes, bunk beds or bathinettes available now at Hagenbring's, for they are all replicas of those used by real babies.

And there's nothing a boy or his dad prize more than a train set, and if they have the train, there are many accessories they most likely still need. Hagenbring's has a complete line of Lionel trains and all their accessories.

No matter how difficult you find it to get to a store before closing time to do your Christmas shopping, you'll find the hours at the Village Store, E. Northwest hwy., just made for your convenience. The store will be open every night from 7 to 9 p.m. until Christmas, and Sundays from 2 to 5:30 p.m.

Your gifts will be wrapped in special gift boxes and you can chose from their great variety of toys for children of all ages, their unusual selection of glassware, pottery and china, and oil paintings.

Mr. Sonntag will use part of the area around the store to display Christmas trees, and Bob Marsh, owner of the Village Store, will provide all the accessories for your tree ornaments, tree stands and lights for the very top of the tree.

Mr. Winkelman at Winkelman's Tire and Battery Shop, 115 E. Davis st., knows that you want your child to have the best in juvenile wheel toys. He, therefore, has selected the best models . . . those that are ruggedly constructed to withstand hard play for his store. Most of his toys can be ridden by the youngsters. They include wagons, tractors, chuck wagons, fire trucks dump trucks and Schwinn bicycles in all sizes and for all age children.

In the train department, he carries and has on display a complete line of American Flyer trains with all the accessories and parts to make any lad's set the best and most complete available.

With only 22 days until Christmas, it's not going to be long until the selection of Christmas cards really dwindles. There's still a good selection of bulk Christmas cards at Aunt Pansy's, the House with the Red Door, 115 N. Dunton ave.

Here you'll find a variety of Swiss, Norwegian and Swedish cards in unusual designs. Then there are Pennsylvania Dutch designs . . . and all these cards are priced from 5 to 25 cents each. There's a great selection priced at only 5 cents each. In addition you'll find a variety of boxed assorted cards priced from 50 cents to $1.

The manner in which a gift is wrapped can make all the difference in the world. A carefully wrapped gift, no matter how small, becomes a token of true affection. Aunt Pansy's have all sorts of wrapping paper and gaily colored ribbon to dress up your gifts.

Blood Plasma

Blood plasma is obtained by separating the red cells by rapid whirling, then dried to a powder. It can be stored for at least five years, and needs only to be mixed with sterile water for injection into human veins.

About Your Health

While the huge and very often grotesque looking enlarged thyroid glands are not seen as frequently in recent years, the medical condition known as goiter is still prevalent. Advances in medical and surgical therapy, and certainly early detection, are responsible for the control of the growth.

Any enlargement of the thyroid gland is a goiter. The condition may be toxic or non-toxic. It may or may not produce symptoms and it may be benign or cancerous.

THE THYROID gland is a butterfly-shaped structure with a lobe on each side of the windpipe with a central portion joining the two lobes across the front of the windpipe. The gland secretes a hormone directly into the blood stream. Its main function is to regulate the rate at which fuel is burned in the body. In other words, it controls the metabolism of the body.

A lack of iodine in the soil and water of a community results ultimately in iodine deficiency in the residents. The hormone of the thyroid gland contains sixty per cent by weight of iodine. If there is not sufficient iodine in the food intake to manufacture the required amount of hormone, the thyroid gland works overtime and becomes enlarged in a futile effort to compensate for the deficiency. Thus we may have what is known as a non-toxic goiter. The use of iodized salt in one's diet forestalls the development of this type of enlargement.

A NON-TOXIC goiter does not necessarily affect the health of the person. In fact it may remain harmless for many years. However, because there is a possibility that this type of goiter may and can become cancerous, a person who develops one should be under medical observation.

Then again this type may become a toxic goiter. The toxic or hyperthyroid individual eats large quantities of food. This is burned rapidly but the resulting energy is dissipated as heat. The patient loses weight and strength in spite of a good appetite. He becomes hot and perspires easily. The heart pumps more rapidly to furnish additional fuel to keep the body functioning. The patient is nervous, jittery and has a noticeable tremor. Another type of toxic goiter is the one associated with "pop eyes." This is called exophthalmic goiter.

Although the new antithyroid drugs have been helpful in controlling this type of development, there are many persons who do not respond and surgery is essential to control the overactivity of the gland.

Loans Slowing Down In Area

Reflecting a modest decline in business, the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago reports that consumers and businessmen are borrowing at a more leisurely pace than they did last fall.

Although consumer installment credit expanded 45 per cent since Regulation W was removed 18 months ago, its rate of growth has recently slowed to a trickle. Cause of this tapering off is the decline in credit buying in recent months coupled with a rise in repayments on consumer loans. The current boost in repayments stems from last year's gain in installment debt.

DESPITE the increased availability of funds, gains in business loans this fall are also less than usual. The Reserve bank states in its monthly review, "Business Conditions," that business loans at big city banks in the third quarter of 1953 rose only 500 million dollars as against an expansion of 1,100 million in the same period last year. Among industry groups borrowing less are liquor and tobacco firms; commodity dealers; oil, chemical, and rubber producers; retail stores; and sales finance companies.

In contrast to business and consumer loans, mortgage lending on residential property topped 13 billion dollars in the first eight months of 1953—one-eighth more than the same period last year. But even here, the Reserve bank expects the margin of gain over 1952 to narrow. Seasonally adjusted housing starts are currently one-fifth under the early spring rate and in each month since June have fallen below the year-ago pace.

AS A RESULT of the declining demand for loans and an increased supply of funds, the bank states, interest rates on short-term marketable securities have dropped off sharply in the past five months. Yields on 91 day treasury bills dropped 40 per cent, while the return on 3 to 5 year government securities is down one-fifth.

Long-term security rates have eased somewhat less, but their decline is especially significant since it makes competing fixed-rate FHA and VA loans look more attractive.

Expect 5,000 Population In Barrington in 1955

The village of Barrington will reach a population mark of 5,000 sometime in the year 1955—or even before—if the current trend in home building continues. The number of residences built during the past four years has averaged about 45 per year, records of the village clerk's office indicate.

The census of 1950 gives the village a population of 4,209. Using the average figure of four persons per family, and figuring the addition of 45 homes per year, gives a population increase of 180 persons yearly. This means that Barrington's estimated census would be 4,389 in 1951; 4,569 in 1952; 4,749 in 1953 (the current year); 4,924 in 1954, and 5,109 in 1955.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mulvey, Inverness, Palatine, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Quayle, Inverness, Palatine, were recent guests at The Edgewater hotel in Madison, Wis., for a football weekend.

Oldsmobile Has Hydramatic Again

Ladendorf Motors, Des Plaines Oldsmobile dealer, announced this week that they are receiving deliveries of new 1953 Oldsmobiles with hydramatic super-drive.

This is contrary to prior announcements by General Motors that the automatic drive would disappear on the GM line with the introduction of the 1954 models in January. Production of hydramatic was curtailed last August when manufacturing plant producing the drive burned in a $70,000,000 fire in Detroit.

During the interim Oldsmobile has been manufacturing automobiles with twin-turbine dynaflow and standard shift transmissions. The new production of hydramatics is coming off the assembly lines at Willow Run, recently purchased by General Motors from Kaiser-Frazer Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Romano, owners of the restaurant, started in the pizza business by feeling out prospective trade, with a small oven. They have only been in business for 12 months and have already found it necessary to replace their original oven with a large one. Approximately 50% of the restaurant's volume is take home. All pizza materials are prepared fresh each day during the day preliminary to the restaurant 5 p. m. opening. Dough is cut, weighed and refrigerated, meat is cut and seasoned, cheese is cut and all other materials are prepared and refrigerated prior to the start of each evening's business.

Evening Guild Plans Yule Party

The December meeting of the Evening guild of St. John's Episcopal church, Mount Prospect, will be devoted to a Christmas party for members and guests. It will be held December 9 in the undercroft of the church at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Haberkamp, local florist, will give a timely demonstration of Christmas decorations of various types suitable for the home, and will donate two items of her handiwork as door prizes.

Mrs. Richard Heineman, religious edueation and service chairman, reminds guild members that it is an annual custom for the guild to furnish gifts for the deaconesses to distribute among needy, adult patients in hospitals.

Mrs. Heineman suggests that each member bring two inexpensive gifts, not wrapped, but with wrapping material included. Such items as cleansing tissue, hand lotion, tooth paste, face cloths, combs, 25 cent pocket books, playing cards, writing paper, etc., are some suggestions.

The members of the board of the Evening guild will serve as hostesses at this meeting. They are Mrs. Edward J. Baumgartner, Mrs. J. Kamp Blackwell, Mrs. Richard Corn, Mrs. R. C. DeZur, Mrs. Richard Heineman, Mrs. Kenneth Olsen, Mrs. Robert Stark, Mrs. Joseph Vavra, Mrs. William C. Wendling and Mrs. A. B. Wood.

A large crowd attended the Evening Guild's Third Annual Thanksgiving ball, held at the Elmhurst Country club last Friday night. Proceeds of the affair are earmarked for the building fund of the new Episcopal church. (AM

About The...

...Barber Shoppers

by GEORGE GLOW

Stan Myers, President of the Arlington Heights chapter of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., Inc. wishes to thank, on behalf of all its members, the people who attended the Third Annual Night of Harmony which was presented in the high school November 22. Nearly 800 people purchased tickets and were on hand to enjoy the harmony.

Joe Bryson, Director, did a magnificent job in bringing the chorus up to its peak. The assistance of Bill Godfrey and Ray Kroc as critics during the final rehearsal was very much appreciatel.

The show was masterfully handled by Bob Hager, Master of Ceremonies.

The quartets who entertained the audience were: The Four Hoarsemen from Arlington Heights; The Barber-Q-Four from LaGrange; The Quarternates, the ladies who were 1950-51 international champions, from the Racine chapter of Sweet Adelines; The Chicagoans from South Town Chapter and The Kord Kings from Oak Park Chapter.

Walter Daube, tenor of the Arlington Heights chapter, sang "The Lord's Prayer" in memory of O. C. Cash, the founder of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., Inc. Mr. Cash died in the early part of 1953.

The Arlington chapter is pleased with comments about the show. One patron remarked "If you are planning to have another show next year, I don't see how you can have a better one." The Barber Shoppers are truly sorry all of the people in Arlington Heights were not able to attend the program.

Non-Fiction: "Fabulous Chicago," by Emmett Dedmon. This sprightly social history of Chicago, from 1820 to the present day, does full justice to its magnificent subject. "Paradise Prairie," by Cecil B. Williams. A true account, rich in detail about man and nature, of Oklahoma when it was the United States last frontier.

"Seven Steeples," by Margaret K. Henrichsen. This is the story of how a woman ministered to seven churches and how a closed and cautious folk opened their hearts to her. This is the story of what love and faith can do. "Jungle Lore," by Jim Corbett. Lovers of adventure will thrill to the hair-raising yarns told in the swift-moving Corbett style.

"MY GANDHI." by John Holmes. Here is an evaluation of what Gandhi's life means to our world, written five years after his martyrdom.

"How to Become a Better Reader," by Dr. Paul Witty. As Director of the Psycho-Educational Clinic at Northwestern University, Dr. Witty has worked closely with children, teen-agers, and adults—aiding them to solve their reading problems.

"The Recovery of Family Life," by Elton Trueblood. This is an honest and a fearless book, but it is basically a heartening one. "The United States in World Affairs 1952," by Richard P. Stebbins. The story of America's foreign relations in the year that preceded the death of Stalin and the advent of the Eisenhower Administration.

The new 1953 "World Guide" and "World Atlas," by Rand McNally. Includes colorful new maps; universal index with new census; encyclopedia of World Places arranged by countries and continents. "Modern Volleyball," by Curtis Ray Emery.

"The Oliviers," by Felix Barker. The private lives and careers of two of the theatre's brightest stars. "New Poems," edited by Rolfe Humphries. These are truly "new" poems by American poets. "Antiques in Their Periods," by Hampden Gordon. Lovers of artistic treasures from fine old houses to pewter spoons will find this book attractive.

"Peace With God," by Billy Graham. How to choose in the hour of decision. (A Literary Guild selection). "Practical Taxidermy," by John W. Moyer. This book shows you in detail how to prepare mounts of birds, mammals, fish and reptiles that are true to life. "The Compleat Practical Joker," by H. Allen Smith. "Let's Keep Christmas," by Peter Marshall. An inspiring and memorable sermon. "Denizens of the Deep," by Philip Wylie. True tales of deep sea fishing.

"Crisis in the Kremlin," by Maurice Hindus. This is a discerning interpretation of Russia's power politics, her present situation and dilemma. "Sketches of American Wildlife," by Stanley Young. "Tomahawks to Textiles," by Frank L. Walton. Complete with illustrations and maps. "Liberation," by Williams S. Culbertson. To be really free, nations must develop a political maturity which renders them fit to be free.

"Conversation with the Earth," by Hans Cloos. A geologist's autobiography. The record of a life spent in search of the secrets of the earth. "1001 Poems of Mankind," by Henry W. Wells.

All members and their wives enjoyed delicious turkey sandwiches and coffee at the After-Glow party in Harmony Hall immediately following the show.

Plans Book Fair December 10

The library and literature committee of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club, Arlington Heights, is sponsoring a Book Fair at the December 10 meeting of the club. In conjunction with the Book Fair, Miss Catharine Gallagher of the Thomas More Book Talk Service will give a talk on books.

Mrs. William J. McNeil, chairman of the library and literature committee, suggests club members solve their Christmas gift shopping problems at the Fair. There will be books to suit every taste.

There will be a variety of different types of books, serious books, and light, humorous books and every shade in between. There will also be a large selection of juvenile books.

Among the latest fiction will be "Too Late the Phalarope" by Alan Paton, "Beyond This Place" by A. J. Cronin, and "The House That Nino Built" by Giovanni Guareschi, the author of the popular Don Camillo books. Among the non-fiction can be found Antoinette and Francois Pope's latest Cookbook and "Call Me Lucky" by Bing Crosby. There will also be a complete selection of beautifully bound Missals and Bibles.

Of great interest to those who travel will be a book called "God an dthe Open Road," which contains a listing of Catholic churches along the main travel routes of the United States.

In the juvenile section can be found the popular quarter books "For Little Catholics" also coloring books, a picture dictionary, the Ding Dong school books and many, many more. Of special interest to teen-agers will be "Rockets, Jets and Guided Missiles" and "Teen-Age Gridiron Stories!

The Cameo Ball

The Explorer Cameo ball was a success in the eyes of all the scouts who attended. Approximately 100 couples were present. All agreed that Jim Bestman's Band played exceptionally well. Refreshments were served during the frequent intermissions. The refreshments consisted of cookies and sherbet float.

Most couples went out to various other establishments after the dance. Fine fully embroidered patches were given as lasting remembrances of the fine event. Rod Dodds coordinated the dance. Locals sent the following: Post 707, 15 couples; post 107, 1 couple; post 136, 2 couples; troop 32, 2 couples.

Commissioner Staff Meeting

The Commissioner Staff of the Blackhawk District held a meeting December 2, at the home of Ray Woodrum.

Arlington Hts. Resident Asks $22,000 in Dram Shop Suit

Richard Heilig, 730 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, a court reporter, Clifford Lindstrom Sr., of Wauconda, and his 8 year old son Clifford Jr., filed a $22,000 Dram Shop suit in Superior court Thursday against Mrs. Corinne Feather, of Wheeling, who operates the Countryside Inn, on the east side of Milwaukee ave. one block north of Central, and Frank and Herman Mueller, who own the Northfield township property where the Inn is located.

According to the suit, prepared by Attorney Ralph J. Boches of Highland Park, John "Jack" Hanlon, of Des Plaines, became intoxicated in the tavern on November 21, 1951 and then ran his auto into Lindstrom's car on Milwaukee ave. at Dempster ave.

Heilig and young Lindstrom were passengers in the Lindstrom auto, and both cars were southeast bound, with the Lindstrom auto stopped for a red light when the accident happened. All three plaintiffs claim serious injuries and blame the Muellers and Mrs. Feather under the Illinois Dram Shop Act.

Heilig is asking $15,000 damages, the maximum allowable under the act, and Lindstrom is seeking $5,000 for himself and $2,000 for his son. Lindstrom is an insurance executive. Attorney Boches said that Heilig was laid up for more than a year and had huge medical expenses as a result of the accident.

Rare Old Plants Are Forgotten Treasures of U.S.

America can discover some rare old treasures, outside the attic, too.

These heirlooms are of the outdoors variety and will be found in almost any community in the nation. They are the horticultural survivors of horse and buggy days and are being "plowed under" because their true worth is unrecognized.

Such is the contention of Franklin Myers, veteran Davey tree expert, who says this situation can and should be rectified. Rare and unusual plants should be preserved for the enjoyment of future generations. In the older "mansion" sections of most old communities prized exotic trees and shrubs usually abound, the tree authority insists.

Before the wreckers come or venerable estates are subdivided for new homes, horticultural experts should be called in to look over the greenery. Many a rare and beautiful shrub or tree is lost through carelessness and ignorance of what is being destroyed.

Davey tree experts in their search for trees to move to new home sites invariably canvass estates about to be broken up for real estate developments. Some of the finest shade and ornamental trees are thus saved from the bulldozer and power saw.

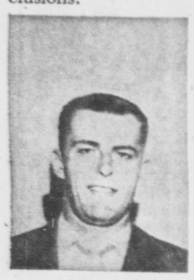

Progressive builders today consult the tree expert or landscape architect before starting construction. In that way, they learn which trees and shrubs are worth saving.

CARDINALS HOST TO DOWNERS IN LEAGUE OPENER FRIDAY

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

FOR PROBABLY the only time this season the standings in the Northwest conference are identical for both varsity and frosh-sophs since there were double winners in every case in the opening games. Games of the first week and the results of non-conference competition lead to the following conclusions:

HELFRICH

(1) Antioch appears to have a stronger team than a year ago. Wins of 63-21 over Libertyville, 51-25 over Lake Forest, and 71-26 over Glenbrook are impressive. Coach Scott used his whole squad or margins would have been worse. Mike Haviland has scored 61 points in three games. The conference schedule looks like a breeze for the Sequoits.

(2) Coach Howie Helfrich at Glenbrook, who handled varsity basketball at Earlham college the past few years, will have plenty of trouble getting a team developed which can give any of the others a close ball game. He probably has the greenest varsity squad in the 28 year history of the conference.

(3) The other six teams will be quite evenly matched with any one capable of beating any of the others if they are right. It looks like Grant and Wauconda at this writing are the best possibilities to follow Antioch in the first division.

(4) The question of whether regulars from last year, who are out of action for various reasons, get back to help their teams may mean first or second division for several schools. Bob Bein of Grant suffered a broken nose in a non-conference game and is out for several weeks. Bert Heuer of Bensenville, high scoring center of last year, did not play against Ela due to scholastic difficulties.

"Tinker" Meyer, Palatine's floor guard, has been out of action since the first conference football game with a wrecked knee. Harold Bass and Bob Hecht, regulars at Wauconda, have not played any basketball yet due to injuries in the final football game.

DON FENNER, captain of Ela-Vernon's Northwest football champs, was voted by his team mates as the most valuable player for the 1953 season. His name will be engraved on the Harold Geise trophy. Fenner was leading passer of the conference, a smart field general, a power on defense as a linebacker, a hard hitting line plunger, and a real team leader.

On top of that the coaches of the conference, in our opinion, pulled the prize boner of all time in not even giving Fenner an honorable mention when they picked the all conference team.

Best gate receipts for football in the Northwest conference the past season were at Antioch where the Sequoits played to four home crowds averaging $600 per contest. And speaking of gate receipts, Palatine took in more money in the first three games of this year's 12 game home card in basketball than they did in nine home games a year ago.

GLEN CHAFFIN, Ela's all conference pass snagging end, won new honors when he was selected by the Chicago Daily News on their second team for Little All-State. This all state team is picked from players in the smaller high schools of Illinois.

Leyden High and Coach Bujan are justly proud of the achievements of Jan Smid who was elected captain of the University of Illinois team for next season. Smid was picked by several press services for guard on the all Big Ten team.

When Smid was a senior at Leyden Bujan had his strongest team which, free lancing, won most of its games and all they played with West Suburban schools, except undefeated LaGrange, who was tied in the final game. Smid was already college caliber at that time.

New basketball coaches in the Northwest Conference this year are Pat Rooney at Grayslake, Ray Collier at Grant, and Howie Helfrich at Glenbrook. Rooney, football coach the past two seasons, had basketball added when Walter Nesheim was promoted to assistant principal. Collier coached at Henry, Illinois with 70% success the past five years while Helfrich moved to Glenbrook from a college position.

BASKETBALL COACHES of this area received a pat on the back Sunday night from George Ireland, cage mentor at Loyola university in Chicago. Interviewed on a TV sport show, Ireland was asked whether high school players were learning the fundamentals.

"I can speak only of the Chicago area," he said, "but those high school coaches are doing a tremendous job teaching their boys fundamentals of basketball."

Locally, Bob Spinks of the junior high school in Arlington Heights is working with Heights wrestling coach Dick Mudge in setting up a program wherein grade school boys can learn the basic moves in grappling before entering high school. Part of this cooperation is included in this week's invitation by Coach Mudge to grade school boys to watch all high school matches, including the opener Tuesday, December 8, against Riverside-Brookfield in the new gym.

Bears Rated Higher Then Palatine

The Northwest conference 14 game cage schedule goes into its second week end of play Friday night with all teams in action. Locally the Palatine Pirates, winners over Grayslake 59-49 in their first outing, will be at home to Ela-Vernon's Bears. Bensenville, loser to Ela-Vernon 61-54, will entertain Grayslake. So for the first two weeks Palatine and Bensenville meet common opponents. Then Friday, December 11, they meet each other on the Bisons' court.

Palatine and Ela-Vernon will be evenly matched opponents as they clash in Palatine's only home conference games prior to the Christmas holidays.

In Don Prouty and Jim Hilbun, Ela has a pair of standout guards who are the play makers and leading scorers for their team. Glen Chaffin, all-conference football end who saw little varsity action last year, will be at center with veteran Don Fenner and Severance at the forwards. Ela has been somewhat handicapped by being without a home gym for practice. Last week they capitalized on free throws to whip Bensenville. Ela was rated by the conference coaches as having a better chance for the first division than Palatine.

THE PIRATES, who have been taking on strong non-league competition, are coming fast. Their 21 points in the first quarter helped them beat a good Grayslake team. Palatine's probable lineup will be Bill Breyer at center, Pete Abramson and John Goetz at forwards, and Larry Hapke and either Alan Eck or Roger Kolze at guards. Lanky Dave Nessett and Ken Hahn, both standing 6' 2½", have been seeing a lot of action at center and forward and need only to start hitting their shots consistently to win regular positions. The veteran Dick Meyer is due to get into action soon and will give the team a lift.

Ela's frosh-sophs are expected to be the class of the league. Last year as frosh they breezed through their schedule and the conference tournament without a defeat. Palatine has one of their best frosh-soph teams in several years and will give Ela a real test of their championship chances.

DOWN AT Bensenville Coach Novatny is preparing his green Bison team for the second of three successive home opponents, the Grayslake Rams. Grayslake has a veteran team led by Jay Hook, one of the high scorers of the conference last season. Capt. Ron Christen, Dick Cryer and Wally Giernoth were regulars last year but lack height. Hook is the only six footer on the squad.

With Bert Heuer, one of the league's leading centers, out of action Bensenville came close to whipping Ela. His height is needed to give the Bisons a chance at the first division, though new boys on the team played fine ball last week. Ken Sirotski and Jim Bresee looked particularly good and teaming up with the veterans, Pedro Cuatrecasas and Billy Long, will give Bensenville a varsity five capable of holding its own in conference games.

WAUCONDA has a veteran team but a break in the schedule pitting them against Grant and Antioch in the first two games may be their downfall. Harold Bass and Bob Hect are out with football injuries and the two point defeat at Grant will probably be followed Friday night by a much worse beating at Antioch.

To all indications Dick Scott's Antioch team is capable of piling up a decisive margin on any of their league opponents at this time. The truth of this theory remains to be proved Friday when the Bulldogs travel to Antioch.

Glenbrook learned a lot of basketball playing against the league's best team at Antioch last week. This week they again take the road to Lake County to do battle with the second rated team in the loop, the Grant Bulldogs.

A coincidence of the schedule sends Glenbrook for their first three games to the schools rated as having the best teams in the conference. Coach Howie Helfrich is having a hard time picking a team at Glenbrook from a very green squad but will have the consolation of knowing that easier competition will be coming up later, though Ela and Palatine to be met in games four and five can hardly be considered as setups.

Survives First Cut

Herb Gorder, 905 N. Mitchell, survived the first cut in the Coe college freshmen basketball squad. Coach Marv Levy announced Thursday.

Gorder will see action when the Coe freshmen team opens its season December 11 against the Cornell yearlings at Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

Double Bowling Match To Benefit Sister Kenny In Bensenville Dec. 13

A Sister Kenny fund benefit bowling double match is scheduled for Trausch-Linden Recreation at Bensenville Sunday, Dec. 13. Donations received will be given to the polio foundation.

Two squads of bowlers wearing the colors of Schamberger-Schlitz will oppose two squads representing the home alleys in the two matches starting at 1:30 p.m. Dec. 13. Sammy Weinstein, Ten Pin Tattler, will emcee

Bowling for Trausch-Linden No. 1 will be L. Weber, V. Dome, W. Robinson, W. Blume, G. Biefield. Trausch-Linden's other squad will include C. Erhardt, F. Leider, J. Geils, W. Biehler, L. Giels.

Schamberger's two teams will include A. Carlson, L. Cioffi, L. Zikes, J. Rotan, K. Simonis on one team; and H. Ledene, Jr., Larry Claeys, Ralph Karkow, M. Nimeth, J. Jinookie on the other.

The Sporting News, in noting the use of laminated bats for next season, recalls two other unusual bats: one with a hook on the end to hit a curve ball and a flat bat for bunting. They never were legalized, however.

Eligible Date For Paddock Bowling Meet 2 Weeks Away

Just two weeks remain for the eligible date in the forthcoming Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament with first place squads of men's leagues as of December 19 rating berths in the meet.

The men's division tourney will be held at Trausch-Linden Recreation, Bensenville, Sunday, January 10. The women will compete a week later, January 17, at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine, with first place teams of December 26 eligible.

COMPLETE DETAILS of the tournament were released at all of the alleys this week. Entry fee of $15 will be due December 26 for first place men's teams of December 19. Entry fee of $15 will be due January 2, 1954, for first place teams of December 26 for the women.

Three games across six alleys will be rolled in each case. A large traveling trophy, five individual trophies, plus hundreds of dollars in prizes will be given in each tournament.

Thirty-three teams competed for the men last year, 16 squads for the women. A slightly larger number is expected this time.

THE TOURNAMENT is now in its third year. Haseman Truckers won the coveted trophy in 1952 at Hi-Way Recreation. Black's Funeral Home took honors last year at Arlington Heights. Emerald Shop won the first woman's division meet last year at Bowlwood Recreation in Wood Dale.

Leagues eligible to send teams include those competing within the area served by Paddock Publications. Alleys cooperating include Wheeling Bowling Lanes, Mount Prospect Bowling Lanes, Arlington Heights Bowling Lanes, Hi-Way Recreation of Palatine, Bowlwood Recreation of Wood Dale and Trausch-Linden Recreation of Bensenville.

THE HANDICAP setup is 70% against 1,000 for the men, against 875 for the women. There will be a 500 pin limit in each case. All bowlers must have competed in at least 21 games prior to eligible dates.

Preferred times can be reserved by league secretaries contacting the tournament manager Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights, as soon as possible. For the men at Bensenville squad times will be 1:00, 3:15, 5:30, 7:45 and 10:00. For the women there will probably be just two squads at 1:00 and 3:15. In case more than 20 teams enter, another hour will be arranged.

Heights Matmen To Open Tuesday

Arlington Heights grapplers, high school style, will open the new season Tuesday afternoon, December 8, at 4 p.m. when Riverside-Brookfield comes to town.

Whether or not the local wrestlers can chalk up as favorable a record this season as last remains to be seen. Coach Dick Mudge has three stalwarts missing for the month of December. Just who will wrestle at what weight is still a question mark.

MISSING 'TIL after Christmas will be John Milnamow, who should be competing at 165; Mike Deschner, probably 155; and Bill Mitch, a junior who may replace Vic Carlino on the number one firing line after the holidays at 95.

Two competitors from last year's state meet who will be of help to Arlington are seniors Bill Schaeffer at 155 and Dave Brant, who is attempting to get down to 175. He competed in the state at 165.

Other boys looking good at this time include junior Wally Mulso at 127 and senior Charles Turk at 133.

BRUCE WILKERSON has the inside track for the heavyweight division. His 225 pounds are a big help as he begins to move quickly.

An invitation to grade school boys to witness the Heights meets has been extended by grappling mentor Mudge. Tuesday's match will be held in the new gym. The sport is still not conference-wide, though Downers Grove is the seventh West Suburban school to compete this year. Only Glenbard remains outside grappling circles.

Palatine And Ela-Vernon Series One Of The Closest

Palatine and Ela-Vernon, who meet in Palatine's new gym Friday night, have maintained just about the closest series of any two schools in this area.

Since the Northwest conference was reorganized in 1939 Palatine has won 14 of 23 games. But take away six games and not one contest has been determined by more than nine points.

FOUR GAMES have been determined by one point, two of them by a single basket, one an overtime, the other a double overtime.

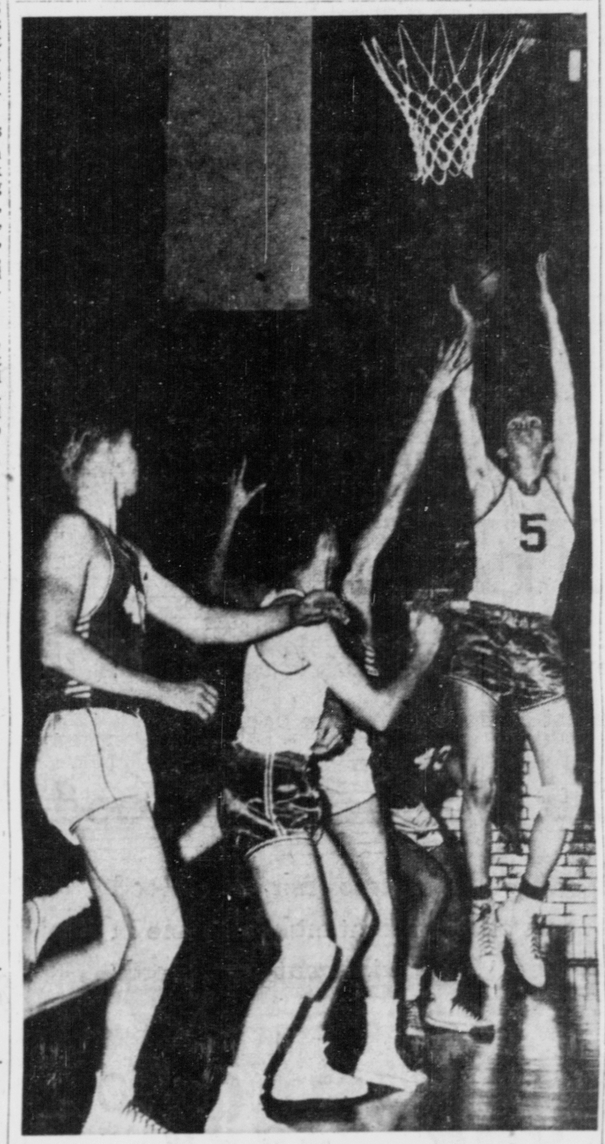

Ela has beaten Palatine by three points three times with Palatine winning by four once, six once, seven twice and eight once.

The Arlington-Barrington series has never been too close, though the two schools have split even in regularly scheduled games.

Barrington has won by three and five, the rest of the time by ten to 20 points. Heights has won by five once, the other times 11 to 20 points.

Ela-Vernon Tops Bisons With 4th Quarter Spurt

The inexperienced Bensenville Bisons kept even with the homeless Ela-Vernon Bears Wednesday night for three quarters but a 15 point spurt the final period was too much. The DuPage county school lost, 61-54.

Coach Frank Novatny's boys kept within shooting range all through the first half, lagging 37-32 at the intermission. A 14-9 advantage the third quarter set things all even going into the final quarter.

Scoring was divided among all player competing with the Bisons' Gengel scoring one basket, and others hitting twice or more. High man was Bresee with five buckets, eight of 12 free throws, for 18 points. Glen Chaffin was tops for the winners with an even dozen points.

Ela-Vernon won the frosh-soph encounter, 54-32.

Arlington Off To Barrington Saturday Night

Arlington Heights Cardinals will open their 1953-1954 basketball season against conference opponent Downers Grove in their 4,000 seat gym Friday night, with defending frosh-soph co-champs of last year meeting in the preliminary at 7:15.

Downers Grove varsity beat Naperville easily last week, 58-48, and will be favored by virtue of that contest. For Heights it will be the first game.

Both Arlington and Downers tied for West Suburban conference honors in the frosh-soph division last year and will provide a good opening game, though most of the regulars for both teams have graduated to the varsity.

ARLINGTON'S new coach, Howard Lester, has a rebuilding job ahead as only three lettermen are back from last year's varsity. A new style of play is in store for hardwood fans as Lester is an exponent of the fast break. His 1949 Winchester team established a state scoring record of 69.3 points per game over 30 games, a record that stood until LaGrange topped it last season.

Probable starters will be seniors Bob Turner and Larry Slinkard at the forwards, and three juniors, Wayne Mueller at center, Denny Maher and Jack Riggs at the guards. Only Turner saw action last season.

OTHER BOYS fitting well into plans are centers Bob Vetter and Charley Verret, and guards Mike Shanklin, Jack Whisler, Dave Lynk and Dave Ryden. Sharp shooting forwards include Bob Dotts, Grant Skelton, Dave Ells and Randy Thomas.

Downers Grove finished in sixth place last year, one notch ahead of Arlington, and has three lettermen back. Two of them, Tom Rolando and Don Extrom, were regulars last year and have good eyes. Standing 6'1", they'll be playing the forward spots. John Bertotti is the other veteran, Stands 5'9½", is fast and aggressive, will be playing one of the guards.

Downers plays Wheaton Saturday as Arlington travels to Barrington. The Cardinals have split even with Barrington in the last 14 games since 1942. The locals lost three, won seven, lost four.

A SEVERE JOLT was given Coach Maurice Klotz, defending frosh-soph titlists at Arlington Heights high school Saturday when both Wayne Malzahn and Dick Sieck injured their ankles. For Sieck it was a sprain, Malzahn tore ligaments which will keep him out of action a month.

The young Cardinals have been cut to a squad of 18 as of Monday of this week. Though the team is the tallest in three years at Heights, the first six boys averaging six feet, the squad's floor game is not up to the par of the past two seasons.

MOST OF THESE boys were with the frosh last year, winning all but two games of a non-conference schedule. This season they haven't hit their stride yet, and it may be two or three weeks before they are coordinated.

Probable starters for the Downers game Friday night will include Bill Randag and John Sujack at the guards and Dennis Streigel at center. Malzahn was originally rated one forward spot and Sieck or Larry Brumm the other. After Saturday's injuries it might be Sieck and Brumm, or Brumm and Wayne Haemker, first line reserves.

Season reserved seat tickets will be on sale for the nine doubleheaders right up to game time at the box office, giving fans an opportunity to come when they wish, yet be assured of the same seat for every contest. Seven league opponents plus Palatine and Crystal Lake will provide the opposition on the Heights court.

Palatine Trips Grayslake In League Opener, 59-49

Palatine opened the Northwest conference basketball season at Grayslake last week Wednesday with a pair of victories. The varsity won, 59-49, after the frosh-sophs eked out a 27-25 decision.

A 21 point opening quarter gave Palatine the winning margin. Bill Breyer, who led the scoring with 20 points scored 11 in the big first quarter. Led by Jay Hook, who tallied 19 points, the Rams tried to overcome the 11 point deficit but could no more than keep pace with the Pirates the rest of the way. Ron Christen had 10 points for Grayslake. John Goetz had 10 and "Whitey" Kolze got nine for the Pirates.

IN THE FROSH-SOPH game the score was close all the way. Ormel Prust and George Beyer each scored three points in the final period to keep Palatine on top. The score going into the final period was Palatine leading 21-18. Bob Kolze and George Beyer each had seven points for Palatine while no Grayslake player had more than six. Both teams showed poor form at the free throw line. Palatin made seven out of 24 and Grayslake hit the same number of charity shots out of 25 tries.

Friday night, December 4, the Pirates play their first home game against a Northwest conference opponent when Ela-Vernon comes to Palatine's new gym. This is the only conference game at home before Christmas. After the holidays all of Palatine's home games, six in number, will be against Northwest opponents.

Blackhawks Beat Barrington And Skokie

The Wheeling Blackhawks won their second and third basketball games of the new season when they defeated the Barrington Bombers, 78 to 57 ,and downed Skokie, 68 to 43. In the Barrington game, the Hawks and Bombers played to an 11-11 first quarter.

But in the second period of play, the Hawks offense let loose to give them a 35-25 half time advantage. The attack was led by center Vic Heimsoth with six and George Newman with five. In the third quarter, Wheeling increased their lead to 51-38. The fourth quarter saw the Hawks tally 27 points, paced by Hans Schmidt's six field goals and two free throws, to hand Barrington a 78-57 defeat.

Schmidt was high man for the victors with 14 points, with Gene Lesch and Jim Pinkstaff runners-up, each scoring 13 points.

AT SKOKIE, the Hawks wasted no time getting started as Gene and Vic Lesch scored eight and seven points, respectively, to put the locals on the top of 24-13 score in the first period of play. Paced by Red Meyer's 7 points and a strong defense the Hawks increased their lead to 39-19 at the half.

After playing an even third quarter, the Hawks went on to down Skokie, by outscoring them 17 to 12 in the final period of play. Bartels of Skokie was high point man for the game with 12. The Hawks were paced by Vic Lesch with 11 markers, and George Newman and Gene Lesch were runners-up with 10 points apiece.

Lester Takes Over

Coach Howard Lester, pictured above, has moved into the coaches' office at Arlington Heights high school where "his boys" will open the West Suburban conference basketball season against Downers Grove Friday night.

Arlington Frosh and JVs to Open Schedule

Arlington's "other" basketball teams, the frosh and JVs, will get into action this coming week when the frosh travel to Palatine Saturday and Barrington Monday, taking the JVs with them Monday.

Leading the frosh will be Coach Carl Nelson. He still isn't sure just who will start. His original turnout of 55 has been cut to 27 after just seven practices. Only definite observation as of Monday morning is the three 6'2" boys on the squad with one of them, Bill Palmer, ready for competition. The other two may develop coordination and be of considerable help to Cardinal teams of the future.

The JVs this year will simply be the reserves and juniors of the varsity. Coaching the group is Howard Lester, varsity coach.

Leyden Trims Palatine Before 1,000 Spectators

Led by Ed Miller, who scored 18 points, Leyden defeated Palatine in the Pirate's gym, 44-30, Friday night before a crowd of 1,000 spectators. Leyden's frosh-sophs made it a double win with a 54-40 victory.

In the varsity game Leyden led 26-13 at the half and was never threatened. Both teams had poor shooting percentages but Leyden had a decided edge on rebounding and got many extra attempts from the field due to their height advantage. Superior free throwing made up eight points of Leyden's winning margin of 14.

JOHN GOETZ was high for Palatine with eight points. Breyer who scored 20 points at Grayslake Wednesday was shut out from the field by his rangy opponents. Leyden had lost to Evanston 39-37 and to Niles 37-36 in two previous games.

Bears Aim For Another Upset, Then Cardinals

The Chicago Bears, who have been beaten by a total of only 40 points in six national football league games this season, are looking forward to another upset Sunday at Detroit. The Bears then come home to meet the Cardinals December 13.

Head Coach George Halas is unable to recall any season in the 34 year old history of the club when the margin of victory in every game was so close. Actually, a total of 51 points separated the winner and loser in ten Bear games to date, which means an average of 5.1 points per game.

THE BEAR season record is as follows:

Baltimore 13, Bears 9.
Bears 17, Green Bay 13.
Baltimore 16, Bears 14.
49'ers 35, Bears 28.
Los Angeles 38, Bears 24.
49'ers 24, Bears 14.
Bears 21, Green Bay 21.
Bears 27, Washington 24.
Detroit 20, Bears 16.
Bears 24, Los Angeles 21.

In total points the Bears have been outscored 230 to 194, an average 3.4 points per game, though losing six of ten games.

Illini Switch From Passing To Ground Game Paid Off For Title

Illinois, 1953 Cinderella team of the Big Ten, attained a share of the conference championship through a concentrated team effort which brought overwhelming superiority in almost every phase of play.

Final statistics, released last week, reflect conversion of Illini from a passing team to one of the most potent rushing units in the nation in just a year. In 1952, Illinois gained twice as many yards through the air as on the ground. This season, the Orange and Blue piled up 2481 yards by rushing, and just 724 by passing.

DESPITE THE accent on a running game, Illinois was not far behind the collective achievement of opponents in passing. Illini defenders held opposition to 780 yards through the air, just 56 more than Illinois' total. Opponents tried far more passes (141 to 97).

The Illini scored 228 points to 133 for nine foes, led 150 to 122 in first downs, 119 to 78 in first downs by rushing, 3205 to 2261 in total net yards gained, 478 to 367 in number of rushes, 575 to 508 in total plays, and 37.1 to 31.8 in average yards of punts. Illinois lost 602 yards on 65 penalties and opponents lost 386 yards on 44 penalties.

ILLINOIS' individual leaders were: scoring, Mickey Bates, 66 points; rushing, Stan Wallace, 11.7 average; passing, Elry Falkenstein, .500 percentage; pass receiving, "Rocky" Ryan, 16 catches for 308 yards; and punting, J. C. Caroline, 38.2 average.

Eight Heights Boys To Compete Dec. 12 In Gymnastics Meet

Eight Arlington boys will compete in the first gymnastics meet of the year when dozens of schools gather for an invitational tournament Saturday, December 12 at Navy Pier, Chicago. Coach Gay Hughes will be leading the local contingent in six events.

Competing on the horizontal bar will be Carl Krautwurst, Dick Neiland, John Kimbrough and John Koeppen. On the parallel bar will be "the three K's," Krautwurst, Kimbrough and Koeppen, plus Fritz Snyder. The same foursome will perform on the sidehorse, with Bob Hawk joining "the three K's" on the long horse. Four boys, Mike Werner, Bob Hawk, Norbert Flowers and Kimbrough will see action on the trampoline and in tumbling.

Boys selected are not necessarily the best in each event, but rather the best in all-around competition selected after eliminations conducted last week by Coach Mudge.

New Trier Leads All the Way at R-B

Alleman high school of Rock Island defeated Morton of the Suburban league, 54 to 52, and New Trier of the Suburban league routed Riverside-Brookfield of the West Suburban conference, 72 to 47, in a basketball double header in the Riverside-Brookfield gymnasium Friday.

Rock Island, trailing 45 to 38 at the end of the third quarter, rallied for 16 points in the fourth period while holding Morton to seven. Center Bill DeWulf led the victors with 24 points. Capt. John Melwid was high for Morton with 14 points.

New Trier, led by Chuck Lindstrom who scored 19 points, was in command all the way against Riverside-Brookfield.

Antioch Opens Title Defense In Glenbrook Win

Antioch opened defense of their Northwest cage championship with a one sided 71-26 victory over a green and inexperienced Glenbrook team. Mike Haviland's 23 points topped the Sequoits attack though Clarke and Lass each got 11. Glenbrook scored only four times from the field though Coach Scott used his entire Antioch squad against them. Glenbrook committed more fouls (32) and Antioch made more free throws (29) that Glenbrook's point total.

Palatine Bowlers Take Four of Five Places in Elgin Bowling Tourney

Palatine bowlers took four of the first five places in the first week end of bowling in the Elgin bowling association's men's singles, with one more week end to go before championships are determined. The tourney is being held at Schneider's alleys in Elgin.

Albert Parkhurst of Palatine notched games of 213, 207, 203 for a 623 actual, 654 total to take first place, only to be replaced the second time around by Jerry Dean, who rolled 176-239-227 for a 642 actual, gross 694. Dean and Parkhurst had driven to the tournament together.

As Parkhurst was dropped to third spot two other Palatine bowlers, Eugene Doyle and Howard Kehe moved into fourth and fifth places.

Wauconda Wins Richmond Meet

Wauconda won the Richmond invitational four team tournament Saturday night by defeating Grant in the finals, 47-44. Richmond took consolation honors by swamping St. Marys of Woodstock 58-24. In the opening round on Friday, Grant captured Richmond 33-27 and Wauconda subdued St. Marys 55-40. Grant had beaten Wauconda on Wednesday in a Northwest Conference game 51-49.

Gene Jaskot, Wauconda's sophomore ace forward, led the way as Wauconda won the tournament with 13 points against St. Marys and 16 in the final with Grant. Dennis Punches had 13 to aid the Wauconda cause in the tournament final. Al Guetzloff was high for Grant in the final with 13 points. Bill Grenell had 14 for Grant in their first round game with Richmond.

Feehanville School

The PTA called a special executive meeting to be held on Tuesday. A discussion concerning the school play was to be the main topic for the evening. I am unable to report on the results of the meeting as I must have my column ready by Monday noon. Make a note of that, Dear Readers, as I am always eager to report your experiences and news, but I must prepare this column no later than Sunday evening.

The school had another delightful surprise last Wednesday when Mrs. Kleeman prepared an entire Thanksgiving day menu for their lunch. The children and their teachers were served all they could eat of the delicious turkey dinner and its savory side dishes. There was-n't a thing Mrs. Kleeman forgot to prepare. What amazes me, and a few other people, is how she manages to do it.

Mrs. Joseph Remsing and two former pupils of Feehanville school, George and Victoria Biba, were visitors at the school that day.

Four new pupils enrolled at Feehanville last week. Andrea and Scott Jeane are here from Fort Worth, Tex., and Claudia and Linda Leisure from Ellwood, Ind.

Little Barbara Lude and Ronnie Karnuth were victims of the flu bug last week.

Barry Bischof received quite a bad lump on his forehead from an ill-aimed rock.

The cast of the Christmas play has been chosen, and those not having character parts will be placed in the chorus. Sounds like it's going to be quite a production. Wish I could round up that talent for our Christmas party in Forest River.

Scout News

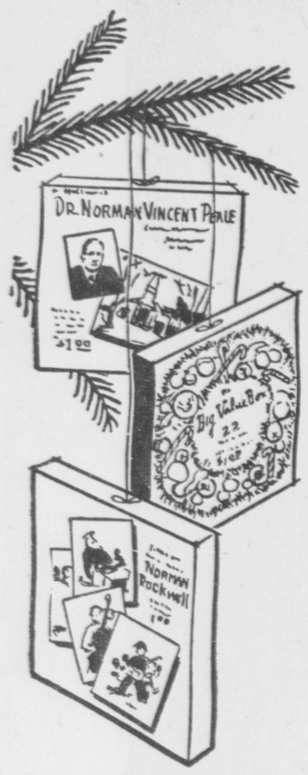

The North Neighborhood troop leaders are deeply grateful to Mrs. Vera Brookhouzen and Mrs. Eve Anderson for the wonderful afghan the council received at their last meeting. I believe Mrs. Brookhouzen was responsible for the needlework, and Mrs. Anderson for the foresight she used in knowing it would be a very welcomed gift from the scouts to the veterans in the hospital. Since that was a completed afghan, the members of the various troop committees, and the leaders are going to try to crochet enough squares to make another afghan for an Easter gift to the vets.

Social News

Mrs. Erwin Phar's mother, Mrs. Klick, is at home after a long three-month vacation with members of her family in Virginia, North Carolina and Pennsylvania. Mrs. Phar entertained relatives from Cleveland last week end and will have her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Miller, of Maryland with her for the holidays.

So long till next week, folks, and have a happy week end.

Elk Grove Community

Teachers' Institute

School will be closed Monday for teachers' institute to be held in Chicago for all suburban school teachers in unincorporated areas.

Books for Sale

Mothers' club hopes everyone will look over all the books at the Book fair to be held at the school next Wednesday. Books will be on display all day and in the evening from 7 to 9. There will be books at all interest levels and prices. It is a golden opportunity to complete selections for Christmas presents.

Mothers' Club Meeting

Regular Mothers' club meeting will be next Thursday at 1:30 at the school. There will be a school choral group featuring Christmas music. Decorations and refreshments will also follow the Christmas theme.

Christmas Program

Annual school Christmas program has been arranged by the sponsoring groups, board of education and the Mothers' club for 8 p.m. December 17. It is to be another community party with candy for the children, refreshments for all and a program by school groups.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

"The Messenger," Elk Grove newspaper rolled off the duplicator last Wednesday. It was a very "newsy," well-arranged newspaper. Sylvia Roesler was the editor, Karen Fischer the associate editor and Mrs. Balson, the faculty advisor. The school is mighty proud of their efforts as well as those of all contributors.

New Equipment

Long-awaited lockers for the seventh grade room arrived. They were ordered during the summer to replace the coatroom space taken over by the library. The first grade room received the rest of their table and chair combinations.

Dance Studio

Mrs. Balson had an interested group of dancing pupils in the physical education classes this afternoon. Although many of the students have danced here before, they needed a little practice to get back in the swing of things.

Wilson Community

To Hold Party

The Community club will sponsor their monthly party at the school December 5 at 8 p.m. Tickets are available through club members or may be purchased at the door.

There have been numerous inquiries regarding the next Community club dance, and it is now definite that the dance will be held February 13 in Buffalo Grove, and the music will be furnished by the Melody Whips.

Proceeds from these various affairs given by the Community club are going into a fund for a black top court for the school playground, and the club announces that the base is now in, and will be ready for the black top in the spring, if sufficient money is raised by that time.

PTA Dinner

The Wilson PTA will serve a ham dinner December 13 from 1 until 4 p.m. in the school basement. Tickets will be $1.25 for adults and 65 cents for children and reservations should be in by December 7. Please call any one of the following ladies to make reservations: Mrs. F. Moskal, CL 3-5882; Mrs. William Thompson CL 3-5066, or Mrs. A. Schanmier, CL 3-7341. Mrs. Thompson is chairman and Mrs. C. Sundquist, co-chairman. Proceeds from the dinner will go toward a cyclorama and opaque projector for the school. The PTA invites the entire community to the dinner.

Receives Award

Wilson school was very proud of Eileen Sundquist, who received honorable mention on her essay in the recent contest, "Why I Am Glad I Am An American" conducted by the Women's club of Arlington Heights. Her entry, along with 28 others from the county will be sent to Washington, D. C., for judging.

square dance held at the field house Saturday was a big success. Thanks to the dance chairman, Mrs. Marge Gorr, who worked so hard. Also to Mrs. Howard Koepke, who spent the entire evening making and serving coffee, Mrs. Dick Stier for being "pop" cashier all evening, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schwake, who collected tickets all evening, and to all the dance committee which did a grand job. A vote of thanks also goes to the caller and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finfrock, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Berg.

The Chuck Jevnes were dinner guests Thanksgiving day at Mrs. Jevne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wood of Fox River Grove.

Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Joseph Muellers were Mr. and Mrs. Armando Spada of Chicago. Mrs. Spada and Mrs. Mueller are sisters.

Vegetable Growers Prexy Praises Benson

A. Lee Towson Jr., Seabrook, N. J., president of the vegetable growers association of America, answered several inquiries from local grower organizations on the position of VGAA toward the criticism secretary of agriculture Benson has received during the past few weeks.

Mr. Towson in reply said, "The views expressed by secretary of agriculture Ezra T. Benson on national agricultural policies compliment the resolutions approved at our VGAA Tampa convention last December.

"Vegetable growers are proud and grateful for the recent statements made by the secretary of agriculture and the president concerning the self-help program of the nation's vegetable growers. We are backing Benson as he is a public servant of the highest integrity and purpose. He is working dutifully to formulate an agricultural program in the best interest of all producers and consumers.

"Most of the criticism Secretary Benson is now getting arises from misguided but well-meaning farmers and from the failure and inadequacy of the present agriculture program, which was enacted under a previous administration."

Home Developers and School Heads to Meet With Supt. Puffer

School officials with attendance problems and realty developers who have indirectly created those problems for many suburbs will meet with Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent of schools at Hotel Sherman at one o'clock next Tuesday.

They will discuss the situation facing many school districts that do not have sufficient taxing power to provide the additional school facilities that the developers are "bringing to town."

Gems of Thought

HARVEST

The vine is bringing forth its fruit; the beams of right have healing in their light.

—Mary Baker Eddy

In harvest time, harvest folke, servants and all,
Should make all together good cheere in the hall.

—Thomas Tusser

Who eat their corn while yet 'tis green, At the true harvest can but glean.

—Sadi

Live within your harvest.

—Persius

Earth is here so kind, that just tickle her with a hoe and she laughs with a harvest.

—Douglas Jerrold

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper, when bowling with friends, to deliver your ball at the same time a person on an adjoining lane is deliverin, his ball?

A. There are rules of etiquette on the bowling lanes, too, and one of th most strict is that one should never do anything to distract the attention of a bowler on an adjoining lane. If he is preparing to deliver his ball, then you should wait until he has bowled before you start down the runway.

Q. When a girl is with her escort at the table in a nightclub, and she wishes to leave the table to go to the restroom, what should she say?

A. "Will you excuse me" is sufficient.

Q. Who is supposed to stand the expense of wedding photographs?

A. The bride's family.

Q. When a young man takes a girl out to dinner, and she happens to know he doesn't earn much money, should she be very modest in what she orders?

A. Yes, but she must be tactful enough not to overdo it. She must realize that the young man would not have invited her if he didn't have enough money, and he might resent it if he knew she was "holding back."

Q. May one ever use the fork for eating a double-decker sandwich?

A. Not if it is of the "closed sandwich" variety. It should be eater with the fingers. If it is an "open" sandwich, then the fork is used.

Q. With whom should the bride drive to the church for the wedding ceremony?

A. With her father.

Q. Is it proper to mail birth announcements to all one's friends, even to those whom one has telephoned the good news?

A. It would seem rather foolish to mail announcements to those persons who have already been told the news over the telephone. But to all others—whether in town or far away—mailed announcements are in order.

Q. Is it proper for a salesman to say "good-by" to the reception girl when leaving the office of a business executive?

A. Yes. This is not only courteous, but also tactful. A small courtesy such as this is often remembered the next time the salesman calls.

Q. If a man is walking along the street with a woman and she is carrying a coat on her arm, should he ask to carry the coat for her?

A. This is not expected.

Q. How should a wedding invitation be addressed to a man and his wife, both of whom are doctors?

A. Simply as, "The Doctors Robert and Ruth Johnson."

Dr. Warren W. Kreft, M.D.

More than 200 other students in the school had their teeth checked before entering school, so did not have to be included in this examination. Seated at the table in the foreground is Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, secretary to Mrs. Thelma Carroll, community nurse, and Dr. D. J. Kennedy, who is examining Mary Anne Berry's teeth. Mrs. Carroll is standing behind the doctor. At the rear table is Dr. M. F. Virnig, examining Edward De Busman, and Mrs. Iva Hufnagel, assistant community nurse. Standing behind Dr. Virnig is Mary June Shulse, eighth grade student helping Mrs. Carroll, and in the right rear are Michael Barton and John Buckley, who are awaiting their examinations. —Staff Photo.

Mrs. Thelma Carroll, right, Arlington Heights community nurse, and her assistant, Mrs. Iva Hufnagel, check over records in the nurse's office located on the second floor of the village hall. These two nurses, both of whom are registered nurses and hold bachelor of science degrees in public health nursing, look after the health needs of all the school children in the community, public and parochial. They also call on mothers with new babies, make home calls to aid aged or handicapped persons, and follow up any TB or VD cases reported to them by local doctors or the county health department. —Staff Photo.

High school students receive hearing tests under the supervision of community nurse Thelma Carroll, who is shown operating the audiometer. Claims First 'Diesel' Locomotive Was Used On Palatine Railroad

From the attic of the pioneer Wildhagen family, Palatine, there was brought to our office by Arthur Wildhagen of Champaign, this week, a copy of the Scientific American dated June 12, 1920.

That magazine covering industry, science, invention and mechanics, occupied the same position as Popular Mechanics today.

The frontispiece of the cover includes a reproduction of the motive power passenger coach bearing the inscription, "Palatine, Lake Zurich & Wauconda R.R." The explanation of the motor car reads in part as follows:

"The accompanying illustration shows one of the motor trucks now serving a small railroad, known as the Palatine, Lake Zurich & Wauconda, in Illinois. The truck is of three-ton capacity and a four-wheel drive. It carries 30 passengers in comfort and hauls a five-ton trailer loaded with freight. Standard railroad couplers, flanger rims, and sand boxes are used. It is reported that the truck makes the 32 mile run of this railroad on six gallons of gasoline with full load."

Included in the magazine were announcements of such new inventions as a mower attachment for a tractor; a machine to cut and top beets, the cyroscope which reveals the amount of water that milk producers have added to their milk; the hydrophone for detection of submarines.

Titles of articles published included:

"Opportunities in radio engineering."

"American pilots flying Polish planes in that country's fighting against Russia."

"A few reasons why prohibition will not bankrupt California grape growers."

"Motorcycle breaks world's record, traveling 115 miles an hour."

Local village officials are receiving letters from Washington this week, asking if their municipalities want their rats exterminated. If the answer is "yes" Uncle Sam is willing to provide the workmen to do the job, if the municipalities will pay for the poison and traps that will be needed. It is estimated by the government that the cost of exterminating the rats of a community will cost about $30 per thousand inhabitants not rats.

The letter received by the local officials is only one of inquiry stating that the government will probably take up the project and asking if the local village is interested.

Editor Tells Story of 'Five Weeks Before the Mast'

Moveable crane lifts a damaged jet plane by means of a hammock

Ninth Installment

THURSDAY EVENING

We have just been joined by the Carrier Wasp, the Battleship Iowa and scores of other ships, including many destroyers, who encircle our formation in an effort to keep out submarines. When their sound device locates one, they get in communication with it, keeping it under water.

If a submarine is not discovered and it gets in position to fire a torpedo, it releases a special flare. Umpires to whom all reports are sent at the end of the exercise will decide what ships are sunk or damaged.

We are now sailing in formation in the form of a triangle formed by the Battleship Iowa, and Carriers Bennington and Wasp. The heavy and light cruisers and destroyers form the outer ring.

Today 35 jets and 45 planes went aloft twice. It is a wonderful sight and experience to be in the midst of it all. We keep off the flight deck as a protective measure. The starting of the jets is a little complicated and a tremendous amount of heat is generated, but the other planes leave the ship two or three a minute. The jets cost about $650,000 each; the regular planes less than half that amount.

I sat in today when the executive, Com. Avery conferred with two officers, giving them instructions. I was surprised how mild he was. In place of saying, "Do this," he said, "Is there any reason why this cannot be done."

Last night my roommate placed a railing on the side of my berth so I would not fall out if the sea became rough. We now turn north past Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, then towards Iceland where there will be live targets for the fliers to attack.

Those officers who have been called back into service from the reserve have decided opinions about the control that politics has over defense. One of the officers attributes mistakes made in defense of the U. S. to actions by civilians who chance to hold governmental offices. He hopes that Dulles' threats to China is not just talk. The next few weeks will show if Russia is impressed by the strength of the western powers. Incidentally, large as is our particular unit that is engaging in this exercise, it is only a small part of the real task force that U. S. has available in case of war.

The possibilities of war and the efforts of the navy to strengthen defenses in order to prevent it, were vividly brought before our eyes today. Two jets cracked up on the landing deck of this ship. The pilots were fortunately not injured, but the accidents showed the danger being constantly faced by fliers.

The first crackup occurred today when a jet pilot hit the deck too hard. There was a burst of flame as one engine went out of commission and fire fighting crews with the hose lines, rushed to the ship.

The landing apparatus was thrust so far up in the fuselage that the only way that plane could be moved was by a huge "wrecker" from which a hammock was placed under the ship, which was lifted into the air. Waiting jets had to return to an elevation of 20,000 feet while the damaged plane was lifted off the landing deck.

As a precautionary measure, with landing operations in progress on the Bennington, the landing deck of a sister carrier, the Wasp, is ready for emergency use. Two of the Bennington planes had to land on that ship waiting for our flight deck to be cleared.

The second crackup occurred when a landed jet was taxiing forward. Suddenly the hydraulic brakes failed to work and the ship went overside upon a gun turret. Fortunately it did not land in the ocean. Again the fire crew was called out, but fire did not break out.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

The sad conviction that we are lacking music appreciation was brought home to us with a bang the other night. We went to the opera.

We had thought that we were genuinely fond of opera. We never had the vaguest notion what the participants were saying but we always managed to get the general idea of the thing by watching them flop around on the stage. We liked it and clapped vigorously to show that we knew a thing or two about fine music. What a fool's paradise we dwelt in.

The night that we attended, La Traviata was being given and, as this is a musical story of Camille (consumption, you know) the flopping was more intense than usual. However, the beauty of the thing escaped us as we couldn't tear our eyes away from the rapt faces surrounding us.

Such bugging out of eyeballs, such clasping of hands in ecstasy, such hissing at coughers, such shushing of what we thought were highly amusing remarks made, of course, by our party.

As the true music lovers became more lovey, we started musically backing up until by the time we left we were confirmed advocates of noisier stuff such as Stan Kenton puts out. Foot stamping is allowed at his concerts. It is even rumored that one is allowed to dance in his presence. That's for us.

Are there any mothers in the audience who have tomboyish girls who are at the neither fish nor fowl age of nine? If so, we have found that one trick that will turn them overnight into the fussiest, best groomed little ladies in the world. We refuse to guarantee how long the transformation will last but the immediate change is breathtaking.

Just take them to the beauty parlor and have their hair washed and set. No peacock ever preened himself as much as our contingent of nine year olds did after last Saturday's visit to heaven.

Our bobby pins have disappeared into their room and bedtime has been moved up an hour to allow time to "put up their hair."

We are waiting with folded hands to see if it all lasts. If it does, the money was well spent. If it doesn't, we have had a nice week.

Does anyone have any trick up their sleeve to make hanging up clothes and putting away toys such fun and joy that no cry of outrage will split the peaceful air when it is suggested that they do same?

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

I think if ever I stop being thrilled by the sight of the first real snowfall of the season, I shall become insensitive to all of nature's beauty and wonders—never again to feel life being born all over again, when in the spring the trees and flowers are once more filled with tender green buds, or to know the delight of being warmed by golden sand and a hot summer's sun, after a swim in the diamond-dotted lake, or to sense the excitement of fall's copper and crimson advent, when almost over night every leaf becomes tinged with a color brighter than any artist would have the courage to paint.

Megan's first words to me this morning, when she came pattering into our bedroom were, "Mama, look outside—there's a surprise for you!" Although it was not quite the surprise to me that it was to her (since we drove home from the farm in quite a snow storm last night), I felt the same eagerness to get out in it, as was really behind those little words. As soon as we all downed our breakfasts, we bundled up in snowsuits, boots and mittens and went out.

I WAS AMUSED to see what Megan did as soon as we reached the yard. She bent down, dipped her mitten into the snow and tried a nice big mouthful. Bridget followed suit. I could remember myself how good to eat I once thought snow was—that, of course, was before I found out how dirty those beautiful, pure white crystals really are. I suppose, as a protective mother I should have stopped them, but I couldn't until they had tried at least several bites. Then I picked up Bridget and put her in the stroller (wishing we had a sled—please take heed, Santa!), urged Megan to come along and off we went to the grocery.

As we turned the corner at the end of our block and headed north, a chill wind caught us head on, so I turned Bridget's stroller around and pulled it, and told Megan to walk behind it. This provided at least a little protection. Megan started to giggle and when I turned around to look at her, said, "Bridget's confoosed." Sure enough, Bridget did look perplexed at her backward ride over the bumpy ice and snow, and frequently hung over the side, trying to look around me to see where she was going. It was only a matter of a block, however, before we reached the buildings of the downtown area and the wind subsided.

ONE OF THE FIRST STORES we reach on this daily route, is the toy store, its windows now filled with the most beautiful dolls any little girl could wish for. There are baby dolls, big walking dolls, bride dolls, dainty ballerina dolls and dolls of various nationalities. On a little farther, we make another stop in front of the florist's window. There amongst his unusual arrangement, we see the tiny music boxes with their fragile, carved figures.

The next point of interest is the stationery store, in whose display window there's a top that fascinates Megan, called "Mr. and Mrs. Potato Head." From what I can figure out from the literature on the cover of the box, it includes all kinds of "eyes," "ears," "noses," etc. to be stuck on the potato heads of two dolls. Well, we hold quite a discussion about this toy, and before long are at the grocery store. Megan makes herself at home on the floor beside the book rack, and Bridget and I go about our shopping. The grocery stop having warmed us up, we make the pleasant trip back home.

Since we're scheduled to make a snow man this afternoon, I shall have to get something done around the house while the girls are napping. So, until next week, dear,

My love,

Patty.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

When I was a small boy up in Minnesota, there used to be a tall, skinny fellow whom everyone called "Toothless Wonder" because he had but one tooth in his mouth. Standing six foot six in his stocking feet, he was conceded to be the laziest man in town. Folks used to admonish their children when they balked at doing some task by asking them: "Do you want to be like 'Toothless?'"

Today, I like to believe, most people would readily recognize in "Toothless" a man who, because of sickness, improper functioning of glands, or some form of mental illness, was "lazy" not because he wanted to be, but because he was an ill man.

More and more doctors are coming to realize that laziness, far from being an act of will, is indeed a sickness. For no person in good health of mind and body is lazy.

NEW APPROACHES in the administration of vitamins have made listless, indifferent, careless people into energetic, ambitious, happy individuals. The development of psychology has uncovered countless cases where so called "laziness" is the symptom of a divided or inhibited mind, or a mind restricted in functioning properly by many other causes. Sickness of which an individual may be totally unaware, may deprive a person of the energy or the pride which would make of him a wide awake, alert person.

Farming people are quick to observe a sick animal. When they see a creature that is slow and listless, they know it is not well. A sick cat grows scroungy, lax, and unclean because it has neither the energy nor ambition to take care of itself, not because it wants to be that way. Chickens often become droopy, their wattles pale, and they spend much of their time dozing. I have seen many people who remind me of sick chickens.

It just isn't in the nature of a healthy person or beast to be lazy. They may look well, eat well and sleep well, but in reality they are in some way ill, deserving of patience, understanding and help.

American-Flag Tanker Fleet Shrinks in Size

American-flag registered tanker ship capacity for transporting vital oil is shrinking rapidly.

At the close of World War II American had approximately 60 per cent of world's tanker capacity. Today that figure has shrunk to 30 per cent and is expected to decline further.

Village Manager

All of the trustees of the present village board feel we taxpayers are not getting the fullest possible service and return for the tax dollar in Arlington Heights. The town has grown from a small town with few needs to a medium sized town with residents who want more services performed by their local government.

The present village board is taking steps to bring Arlington Heights "up to date." Hugo Thal is rewriting the zoning laws, and the board has hired an expert to rewrite the village ordinances and to bring the building code up to date. We hope this will be completed within six months. These will give us modern "tools" and "regulations" with which to work. However, it is also felt there should be some revamping of the operating organization of the village to get maximum efficiency for the least cost. We board members are all agreed this is necessary. On the method of accomplishing this end there are differences of opinion.

One method proposed is to hire a full time village manager. This person would be a graduate engineer with full control and authority over the operation of the village government, including the police and fire departments, and the treasurer's office. He would be appointed by the board and subject to dismissal at any time by the board. He would be responsible only to the village board and all complaints and operational problems from finance to personnel hiring and firing would be his responsibility. This would leave the village board free to set policy and plan for the future growth of Arlington Heights.

Such a village manager would have to be paid somewhere around $8,000 to $12,000 a year and possibly would require secretarial help and miscellaneous car and other expenses. Thus, a minimum cost of a village manager would be about $12,000 a year. If savings or better services can be accomplished to justify the expense, I am for such a plan.

Would a village engineer, or commissioner of public works with authority and supervision over the water, sewer and street departments be more practicable than a village manager? Such a person could take over some of the engineering problems of the village and get fees for the village which might total as much as his salary.

I am open to suggestions, information, and facts on this matter before I vote for this plan.

How do you feel concerning this problem?

Trustee Richard Bronwell
Arlington Heights

Help The Kids

Would you subscribe $93,756 to help improve the juvenile delinquency situation of our area? I am sure you would be glad to subscribe that much and more if you could afford it . . . take time now to read on please.

Did you ever see a 14 year old girl giving herself a shot of heroin? Did you ever see a 12 year old boy in the midst of a marijuana "kick?" Or have you ever witnessed a street brawl where a bunch of young toughs were bashing heads with another gang?

We don't even like to admit that such things occur, much less see them. However, you and I have been sleeping too long. They do occur, every day. There are two things we can do about it; spend time and money passing laws to send these kids and those who corrupt them to jail, or give them a little love and a chance to know some of the finer things of life.

We have an organization known as the CYO that is doing a wonderful job for kids of every faith and creed. This wonderful activity is headed by Bishop Bernard J. Sheil, a man who has dedicated his life to help improve the juvenile delinquency situation throughout the area. I am sure you are familiar with the activities of the CYO.

These activities cost money, but not a lot . . . $8 picks up the tab for a lad or a young lady for a full year of CYO. Quite simply, as one friend to another, I am asking for your help, not for $8 . . . or even $4 . . . just one dollar, AND your influence on your many friends for their dollars . . . just one from each.

Take a dollar bill out of your pocket right now and mail to Bishop Bernard J. Sheil, CYO, Chicago 5. Mark this envelope with the letter "C", so some check may be made as to the success of this effort. Mail your 5 letters to your 5 friends immediately following receipt of this letter from me. Select those who have typing facilities available.

If you receive a second letter, do not send a second dollar bill to Bishop Sheil, but instead, write to an additional friend so that we may end up with 93,756 letters to that many men who will subscribe the total of $93,756.

Good Coverage

Through the efforts of Charles Hufnagel and Bud Booth, as well as the cooperation of your entire organization, the Bensenville and DuPage County Registers have given much support to the program for school improvement in high school district No. 100. As president of the board of education, and also as a private citizen, it is my pleasure to express to you the thanks and appreciation of our Board for this consideration and assistance.

We feel that our successful referendum was due largely to the aroused interest of an active and well informed citizenry in which your excellent news coverage played an extremely important part. Through this presentation of matters of educational concern the Register has rendered a valuable community service.

The Board of Education is grateful therefore for the work done by your newspaper and its staff, and particularly for the assistance of Messrs. Hufnagel and Booth.

Paper Pickup

This is a report to the people of Arlington Heights on the scrap paper pickup on the North side made November 21.

Approximately 10 tons of paper were picked up by a very willing and adequate crew of scouters and dads. We are sorry if any of you got your bundles out too late, but the drive was completed in the record time of two hours. The relatively low tonnage was the direct result of visits to our fair city by trucks of the Salvation Army. It is reported that they picked up at least 7 tons of paper a couple of days before our drive. That would have represented about $75 to your Scouts.

Remember! Receipts from paper given to your Scouts stay in Arlington. If paper is given to outside agencies, it benefits no one in Arlington.

WE DO NOT question the good work being done by the Salvation Army and Good Will agency, but we would sincerely appreciate it if everyone would save his papers and magazines for the bimonthly Scout paper drives.

Thanks to those residents who are giving us their papers, to Paddock Publications for our swell publicity and to the following for the free use of their pickup trucks:

State Law Demands Voting Machine in Suburbs; Voters Said No

Cook county has a problem involving voting machines in the suburbs.

Under a state law the county board is required to install voting machines in precincts outside Chicago. But on November 3 the electorate defeated a referendum to float a bond issue to pay for more machines.

The question came up Monday before the board's finance committee. Commissioner John J. Duffy asked whether the county still has to supply the voting machines. The discussion ended with the committee voting to ask State's Atty. Gutknecht for a legal opinion.

Duffy said he believes the county is still obligated to buy the machines.

However, Board President William N. Erickson had a bigger question. He wanted to know where the county is going to get the money.

County to Ask Higher Zoning Fees

The cost of the chance to have changes made in the county zoning ordinance may soon go up, it appeared Monday. A rezoning request always is a chance, of course, because the applicant never is sure that his plea will be granted.

Secretary Walter Popjoy of the county zoning board of appeals has asked that filing fees for zoning changes or variations be hiked. He wants the present fees ranging from $10 to $50 increased to $25 and $100.

Last April the state approved a flat $100 fee put into effect in neighboring Lake county. Popjoy says that higher costs, including the price of necessary legal aides make some sort of increase necessary.

Monday the public service committee of the county board recommended approval of the proposed fee increases.

Ask Extension of Electric Service Along Kirchhoff Road

The County Board on Tuesday referred to a special committee headed by Commissioner John J. Duffy a request from the Public Service Company division of Commonwealth Edison for permission to install an electric distribution pole line along Kirchoff road, from Central road northwest to a point 256 feet southeast of the east line of Chestnut street, and on Central road at Vail avenue, in Wheeling township.

Can You Tell Me?

Why Enamel Peels?

The last enamel we used is peeling off of an interior wall. It is a leading brand of paint. Before painting, the walls were thoroughly washed and allowed to dry three or four days. The previous paint was in perfect condition and still is, under this peeling. Can you tell me what might be the cause? It has been on about four months.

The enamel undoubtedly peeled from lack of adhesion which was brought about by one of two things. If the previous finish was enamel and the gloss wasn't dulled down before re-enameling, the new coat of enamel had nothing to which it could cling. If the previous enamel was dulled down, then perhaps the difficulty arose from the washing. Sometimes people wash walls and do not thoroughly rinse off the soap. If even the thinnest film of soap is left on the surface and enamel is applied over it, the enamel will not adhere and will eventually come off in sheets.

GET READY FOR WINTER NOW... WITH GOODYEAR'S SUBURBANITE Snow Tire

1. Pulls through snow

2. Holds better on ice

3. Takes hold in mud

4. Grips safely on wet roads

Don't let winter's rough weather catch you unprepared! Put a pair of Goodyear's great Suburbanites on your car's rear wheels and be ready to roll through snow, slush, or mud. The famous Suburbanite puts 464 grip-cleats and 1856 knife-like edges to work for you. You get as high as 91% more startibility on packed snow, up to 39% more stopability on packed snow and up to 30% more startability on ice. You get longer wear from the Suburbanite's wider, flatter tread AND, when the roads dry off, you get smoother, quieter rides, less rumble so common with other winter tires. So don't delay another day — see us now for your set of better-gripping Suburbanites by Goodyear.

Order Legume And Grass Seed Early Good Advice

Even though legume and grass seeding time is still several months away, it isn't too early to order your supply of seed.

W. O. Scott, extension agronomist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says you'll first need to decide how much of each variety you're going to need.

Then you'll need to buy your seed where you can get the best price, because the cost will probably vary with the supply available to your dealer this year.

ILLINOIS normally is a red clover exporter, Scott points out. This year drought conditions cut the supply short. However, there will probably be enough Kenland Red clover all over the country for you to get all you need.

Supplies of Ranger and Buffalo alfalfa also appear to be plentiful, and there is a two-year supply of Ladino clover on hand. Ladino will be cheap, so you can plan to use plenty of it. The shortest legume supply will be lespedeza, where production this year is only about half of normal demand.

THERE WILL BE plenty of alsike clover, but the supply of sweet clover, while adequate, will be of poor quality, Scott says. Better buy early while you can have a choice of quality.

The only bright spots in the grass seed picture are tall fescue and brome. Tall fescue price should drop because of the surplus. Total supplies of redtop will only be about one-third the normal demand this year, so you can plan to use tall fescue as a substitute. There will be enough timothy, sudan and orchard grass.

New Erysipelas Bacterin Can Save Hogs, Cash

Savings that hog raisers may get with the use of a new erysipelas bacterin should be reflected to housewives.

The new erysipelas bacterin will be available for mass inoculation purposes about January 1, Cunningham said.

The bacterin, as yet un-named, will make hogs immune to erysipelas, a disease that affects the skin and bone joints of hogs.

BY KEEPING erysipelas in check, farmers can fatten hogs to market weights in less time.

The new bacterin is expected to be used most in the heavy hog producing counties of Illinois.

Reporting on hog cholera, another disease that plagues farmers, Cunningham said new vaccines have made it possible for cholera to be put on an eradication rather than a control program.

Cholera is a malignant, more often fatal disease than erysipelas. Outbreaks of the disease often reach epidemic proportions, thus causing farmers to suffer heavy losses, Cunningham said.

"NEW MODIFIED live virus vaccines are going a long way toward stamping out cholera, depending upon how widely the serum is used," he continued.

Some of the advantages of the new vaccines listed by Cunningham are as follows:

(1) Early protection is given. Suckling pigs, even on immune sows, may be vaccinated as early as five weeks of age.

(2) No change in feeding programs is needed, thus enabling farmers to bring hogs to market weights without interruption.

(3) The disease won't spread.

(4) Long protection, proven to be effective for a year—and possibly longer is given.

Former Adviser Meets Friends

Country Life insurance company observed its 25th birthday in these parts recently in a dinner with the above men very much in evidence. Standing are, left to right, Andrew S. Olipra, James L. Drake, Fred E. Parsons, William R. France. Seated are O. G. Barrett, Ezra McClaughry and Charles Erickson, president.

When the Country Life organization of Cook county made plans for the 25th birthday party of the formation of that company, their thoughts turned to O. G. Barrett, former Cook county farm adviser, who sold the first policies issued by the company in Cook county.

The celebration was held at a restaurant in Franklin Park. "Ole" Barrett was the speaker. He had many anecdotes to tell about those original policy holders who were there that evening. Barrett is still a farmer in Michigan, but for the evening he returned to the Sweede character that he introduced 25 years ago which won him renown. He was in demand at many statewide farm meetings as well as radio stations.

Similar anniversary gatherings were held the same evening in 95 counties of the state and were attended by 10,000 policy holders. The company today has in effect nearly 600,000,000.

LAW on the FARM

In 1931 the Illinois legislature approved an act to "regulate the selling, offering or exposing for sale of agricultural seeds." As defined in the act, all commonly used seeds in Illinois are covered including hybrid corn and vegetable seeds. The law provides that containers for agricultural seeds offered for sale must bear a plainly written or printed tag or label containing the following information:

1. Commonly accepted name and type or variety and the work "mixture" or mixed if there are two or more seeds each in excess of five per cent by weight.
2. Lot number or identification.
3. Origin—if alfalfa, red clover or field corn (except hybrid corn). If origin is unknown, that fact must be stated.
4. PERCENTAGE by weight of all weed seeds.
5. Name and approximate number per ounce of secondary noxious weed seeds or bulblets when present in excess of specified tolerances. It is illegal to sell seed containing any primary noxious weed seeds. (Primary noxious weeds are Canada thistle, perennial sow thistle, field bindweed, leafy spurge Russian knapweed and hoary cress. Secondary noxious weeds are curled dock, wild garlic, dodders, bull nettle, buckthorn, quack grass, wild mustard, Johnson grass, ox-eye daisy and wild carrot).
6. Percentage by weight or agricultural seeds other than those required to be named on the label.
7. PERCENTAGE by weight of inert matter.
8. Percentage of germination, percentage of hard seed, calendar month and year tested.
9. Name and address of the person who labeled the seed or who offers it for sale within Illinois.

Sellers of vegetable seed must label the kind and variety, include the name and address of the person who labeled the seed or offers it for sale within Illinois.

If the seed does not meet germination standards set by the state department of agriculture, the percentage of germination and of hard seed and the year and month of the test.

THE LAW further provides that the sale of agricultural or vegetable seed in Illinois shall be unlawful unless the required tests have been made within a nine months' period prior to the sale, exclusive of the month in which the test was made. False labeling or false advertising and weed seed content in excess of amounts established by law also make such sales illegal.

The state department of agriculture is charged with the responsibility of enforcing this act and making official seed analyses.

The law is contained in the Illinois revised statutes, chapter 5, sections 33-42c.

Good Watchdogs Help Protect Your Earnings

Best defense you have against the seven thieves who steal most farm earnings in Illinois is a good watchdog.

Best watchdog is a good farm record book, properly kept and analyzed. Like all good watchdogs, it lets you know when a thief is making a haul. It will also help you get rid of him.

The thieves he particularly guards against are Low volume, Bad weather, High costs, Low prices, Low yields, N. Efficient livestock and poor cropping systems.

The watchdog will let you know when Bad Weather and Low Prices steal from you. And, although you can't do too much about them, he will tell you how bad they've hurt you.

But you can do something about the other five, once you know they're working on your farm.

Low volume is probably swiping a little if your farm uses fewer than 20-24 man-months of labor a year. In 1952 the average 160-acre grain farm in Illinois grossed less than $11,000, leaving only about $110 for management. Low Volume took a lot there.

Keeping tab on Low yields and Poor cropping systems can often help you protect yourself against low volume and bad weather. The best way is to grow all the high-profit crops you can and still keep you.. soil in good shape.

How to defend yourself against high costs and inefficient livestock depends on how they operate on your farm. You and your watchdog can get a good line on them, however, if you're willing to do a little detective work.

Dairy Farmers Keeping Pace With Changing Times in World

Dairy farmers are changing their methods to keep pace with the changing times, according to Fordyce Ely, chairman of the department of dairy science at Ohio State University.

Farmers have done their share in increasing milk production per cow by using advanced methods, Ely said today.

"Milking machines, gutter cleaners, bulk storage tanks, milk pumps, and other modern equipment have had a lot to do with increasing milk production per cow by 1,000 pounds in ten years," Ely told farmers and dairy marketing people at the meeting.

All Farmers Eligible To Sign For 1954 ACP

All farmers in Cook county are eligible to request cost-sharing on soil conservation practices approved under the 1954 agricultural conservation program. This statement was issued today by Mr. Callahan, office manager of the local ASC committee, formerly called PMA.

The fundamental purpose of this program, as recently set forth by secretary Benson, is to provide the means by which the public can share with landowners and operators the cost of carrying out needed conservation work over and above that which they would do with their own resources.

December 18 is the final date for completing the initial sign up, warned Mr. Callahan. Any farmers who have not yet filed their requests for assistance and desire to participate in the program should immediately contact their local community committeeman for advice or to call at the county ASC office located in the farm bureau building, Arlington Heights.

Starting Fires With Kerosene Is Dangerous

Your first mistake may be your last if you use fuel oil or kerosene to start fires.

This warning comes from Gordon McCleary, University of Illinois farm and home safety specialist. He says more than 500 persons in the U. S. started their last fires with such fuels last year—and it could happen to you.

The quick, safe way to start a fire in your stove or furnace is to crumple up some old newspapers, light them and then heap on cobs or dry kindling.

The pint of kerosene has the explosive power of 10 sticks of dynamite when it is vaporized (mixed with air). Add to this threat the danger of keeping fuel in your home, and you'll realize that the "crumpled newspaper" method is best.

Avoid using cobs soaked in kerosene, as they aren't always safe either. Never throw kerosene into a stove that may have hot coals under the ashes, or there'll probably be an explosion.

As for gasoline, McCleary says it is even more dangerous than kerosene.

Electrocution Danger When Moving Elevator

It happens every fall—one or more Illinois farmers are usually electrocuted when corn elevators they are moving contact overhead electric wires.

Frank Andrew, rural electrification specialist at the University of Illinois, says such accidents are easy to prevent. He offers these tips:

If the move is in your farm yard, pull the fuses at the main service box while moving the elevator so that overhead wires which may touch the elevator are not charged.

If this is impossible, have one person watch the operation from a short distance and warn you of close overhead wires.

This final precaution, Andrew says, may help to avoid doubling the toll if a man is electrocuted. Only after turning off the current or breaking contact with the charged wires is it safe to touch the victim. If the current cannot be turned off, use a dry rope to pull the body away. Failure to observe this rule can mean death or serious injury to anyone touching the victim.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

To understand creation, we must look, not to human reasoning, but to divine logic, not to physics, but to metaphysics, where man and the universe are revealed as created by perfect Mind and held forever in His eternal laws. This will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 6. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be GOD THE ONLY CAUSE AND CREATOR.

The Golden Text is from Psalms (75: 1) "Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth" (Isa. 40: 26).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Creator. Spirit; Mind; intelligence; the animating divine Principle of all that is real and good; self-existent Life, Truth, and Love; that which is perfect and eternal . . . Infinite Mind is the creator, and creation is the infinite image or idea emanating from this Mind" (pp. 583, 256).

Lessons In.... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Distinguish between "ingenious" (talented or clever) and "ingenuous" (of a superior character, noble, generous).

Do not say, "These men have certain distinguished traits." Say, "certain distinctive traits."

Do not say, "It's just like I thought it would be." Say, "It's just as I thought it would be."

Do not say, "He stole the knife off of the boy next to him." Say, "He stole the knife from the boy."

"Lonely" implies a longing for congenial companionship while "solitary" implies nothing more than absence of companions, isolation. One may be lonely, though surrounded by uncongenial persons. One may live a solitary life without being lonely.

Do not say, "His reason is apparent." It is better to say, "His reason is obvious."

Words Often Mispronounced

Radiator. Pronounce first a as in ray, not as in rat, often heard.

Garand (rifle). Pronounce garand, both a's as in at, accent first syllable.

Hoi polloi (the populace). Pronounce hoi-po-loi, the oi in each case as in boil, the o as in pole unstressed, principal accent on last syllable.

Impious. Pronounce both i's as in it, and accent first syllable, not the second.

Les Miserables (novel by Victor Hugo). Pronounce la-me-za-ra-la, first and second a's as in lay, third a as in rat, final a unstressed, the e as in me, principal accent on fourth syllable.

Puttee (a legging). Pronounce put-i, u as in but, i as in it, accent first syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Burro (a donkey); burrow (a hole in the ground, or to excavate a hole). Villain, two l's; vilify, one l. Intense (extreme); intents (intentions). Prescribe; not perscribe. Gesture (a motion); jester (one who jokes). Exemplary; ary, not ery.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Insoluble; not to be solved or explained. "These are the insoluble riddles of life."

Disillusion (verb); to free from a false impression. "He was very much disillusioned when he discovered the truth."

Methodical; characterized by method or orderliness; systematic. "She came and went with methodical regularity."

Revelation; act of disclosing, or that which is disclosed. "His revelation came as a surprise to his friends."

Incapacitate; to deprive of capacity; disable; disqualify. "Ill health incapacitated him."

Cumulative; formed by successive additions. (Pronounce both u's as in cute, accent first syllable). "The force of character is cumulative."

Business Activity At Record Level

Business activity continued at high levels in the Chicago area during September, 1953, with a number of new monthly records being established.

New September records were set in steel and electric power production, industrial gas sales, air express shipments and passenger traffic, postal receipts and banking activity.

Chicago area steel mills produced a total of 1,675,600 net tons of steel, compared with an output of 1,595,900 tons in the same month a year ago.

Electric power production reached a new September high of 1,287,376,000 kilowatt hours, compared with a total of 1,208,978,000 reported in September, 1953.

Industrial gas sales totaled 13,137,148 therms compared with 11,734,987 a year ago.

Air express shipments were higher than any September on record with 63,124 compared to 61,058 in the same month last year. Air passengers carried totaled 626,977 at Midway Airport, a September high, but lower than the all-time high of 642,888 passengers established in August, 1953.

Chicago postal receipts increased in September to $12,151,890. Postal receipts in September, 1952, were $10,967,124.

Canaries

FOR SALE — GUARANTEED singers, vitalized feed. Birds boarded and treated. Nails clipped. Ernst, Palatine and Chestnut rd. Clearbrook 3-4046.

Over the Counter Sales Open for Car Licenses

Secretary of state Charles F. Carpentier has announced that Illinois 1954 truck and passenger automobile license plates went on sale in both Springfield and Chicago Tuesday, Dec. 1. License plates will be available in Chicago at the office of the secretary of state's automobile department at Ashland avenue and Van Buren street.

License plates which were reassigned to the previous holder, Secretary Carpentier said, went into the mail last week end and motorists should start receiving them at about the same time counter sales open.

The 1954 plate is green background with white numerals. In addition, it bears the slogan "Land of Lincoln."

With Uncle Sam

Telling of meeting his brother in Korea is Pvt. Robert Meyer of Palatine.

"I have been a reader of your paper for a long time. I lived in Palatine all my life.

"I left the states for Korea on the 20th of August and have been here for a couple months. After I got into this company, I noticed my brother, Sgt. Elmer W. Meyer had the same A. P. O. number.

"I am a switchboard operator at Headquarters I Corps. During my hour off the board I looked in the directory and called him. We talked 45 minutes.

"The next day he came over to see me. He also brought our neighbor along, Cpl. Robert G. Kiehl. It was wonderful to see them.

"Bob Kiehl left the next Friday. I have been seeing my brother for about a month, although he has since gone home. We are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Meyer, 24 W. Robertson st., Palatine. Cpl. Kiehl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kiehl also living on Robertson st., Palatine.

"Cpl. Robert Kiehl was in the First Marine Division. My brother, Sgt. Elmer W. Meyer, was in the 14th Engn. (C) Bn., and I am with the 51st Sig Bn. Corps, Co. stationed about 20 miles north of Souel in a town called Uijongber.

"Being a switchboard operator I hope to find and speak with more of my buddies from home. It makes a guy feel closer to home if he can speak to someone from home. I have also talked to a buddy that lived a couple houses away from ours, Pvt. Raymond F. Sievers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Siepers and Pfc. Donald Marquardt of Palatine. Sievers is in the 40th Inf. Div., 160th Regt. Company (B). Don Marquardt is in Headquarters Soc. Co., 14th Transportation Bn.,,

His address is Pvt. Robert Meyer, US 55377458, Hq. Co. 51st Sig. Bn Corps., APO 358, % PM, San Francisco, Calif.

In Korea

Melvin H. Hartmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartmann, Route 1, Roselle, was recently promoted to corporal while serving with the 34th infantry regiment in Korea.

Cpl. Hartmann entered the army in August, 1952, and completed basic training at Camp Roberts, Cal. He left for Camp Drake, Japan, in January 1953. Later he was transferred to Korea and was engaged in the prisoner exchange.

He recently spent a seven day rest leave in Japan.

In Texas

Kennethe G. Miller, 20, son of George W. Miller, 139 S. Hale st., Palatine, having successfully completed the initial phase of his aviation cadet training program, has been graduated from the USAF pre-flight school, Lackland air force base, San Antonio, Texas.

Having completed the twelve-week pre-flight course, he will enter the first flying training phases of the program at bases of the flying training air force.

Carol Singing

The annual Christmas carol sing and tree-lighting ceremony at Northwestern University will be held at 6:45 p.m. Monday, Dec. 7, on Deering meadow of the Evanston campus.

In case of rain the program will not be held.

Receives Commendation At Base in North Carolina

Marine sergeant William G. Docterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dochterman, Route 83 and Irving Park boulevard, Bensenville, in informal ceremonies at Cherry Point, N. C., was recently presented with a commendatory letter by Major P. F. Bent, commanding officer of headquarters squadron 2.

The letter, forwarded from the troop training unit, United States naval amphibious base, Little Creek, Va., commended Sergeant Dochterman for his work as a news writer during temporary assignment to that base from May through September, 1953.

According to the citation, "Sergeant Dochterman performed his duties in an outstanding an energetic manner . . . His proficiency reflected high credit on his parent unit and was noted with pleasure."

Personal congratulations to sergeant Dochterman were extended by major general Clayton C. Jerome, commanding general, second marine aircraft wing.

Sergeant Dochterman is a graduate of Bensenville high school and attended Monmouth college, before entering the marine corps.

In Ohio

First Lt. Donald E. Roetman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Roetman, 105 E. Daniels rd., Palatine, has completed a two-year tour of active duty with the air force.

He has been assigned to air materiel command headquarters at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, since August, 1952, as a project officer in the procurement division's aircraft rotary wing and liaison section. In this post, Lieutenant Roetman has administered contracts and coordinated details with Air Force contractors.

A native of Sioux City, Iowa, he was graduated from Parks college of aeronautical technology with a bachelor of science degree in aeronautical engineering in 1951. Lieutenant Roetman entered the service in November, 1951 and served as a maintenance officer at Westover, Mass., and Mountain Home, Idaho, air force bases before his assignment to AMC.

In civilian life he was an aeronautical engineer for the Chance Vought aircraft corporation.

He was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant last July.

File Incorporation for New Gas Company

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Illinois secretary of state to establish Northern Illinois Gas company. The new company is being organized as a subsidiary of Commonwealth Edison company to own and operate the gas properties of Edison's Public Service company division which serves 450,000 gas customers in northern Illinois outside Chicago.

Under the program, Edison plans to sell $60,000,000 of mortgage bonds which will be a lien on the gas properties. Upon transfer of the gas properties, the bonds, constituting about 50 per cent of the new company's capitalization, will become the obligation of Northern Illinois gas company.
